ORDINANCE NO. 5-15- (1995)

ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING THE DUTIES OF THE TOWN CONSTABLES

The Town Board of the Town of Farmington does hereby ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. Town Constables. Except as provided in subsection (2), the Town Constables' duties are limited to the following:

- a. Enforcement of town ordinances regulating dogs; including the impoundment of a dog, if necessary, and the issuance of citations to violators.
- b. Enforcement of town ordinances regulating the parking, standing and stopping of motor vehicles and the issuance of citations to violators.

SECTION 2. Town Constables who have completed training under s. 165.85(4), Wis. Stats., and annual recertification training, shall be authorized to enforce all laws or ordinances of the Town of Farmington and have the authority and duties of a peace officer, including the duty to maintain public order and to make arrests for crimes.

SECTION 3. This Ordinance shall take effect on and upon passage and publication according to law.

Approved: May 15, 1995.
