Friday News 8-21-2020

Greetings Team ACPS:

Amelia-Nottoway Technical Center (ANTC) is extremely happy to once again welcome Amelia County High School (ACHS) students. The ANTC staff is very passionate about career and technical education and we look forward to working with ACHS to provide our students with rigorous and relevant academic experiences. ANTC will always strive to provide outstanding programs in an environment where students prepare for meaningful employment. We look forward to working with ACHS to ensure that our students are Preparing Today for Success Tomorrow.
