

Christina Jones, M.Ed., MS, PBSS, RBT, is a licensed behavioral technician. Christina received her Master's degrees in Education and Behavioral Science with Honors from Western Kentucky University in May 2019. Christina has over 25 years' experience working with families and individual with special needs. At this time, Christina is currently working to obtain her BCBA as a Board-Certified Behavior Analysis and will graduate in December 2022 with a Master's in Psychology, emphasis on Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA). Christina works with child and adolescents devising personalized problem-solving strategies and behavior modification plans with families to eliminate behaviors and thoughts that are unhealthy at Wilson Counseling.

Christina's therapeutic approaches include applied behavior analysis (ABA), cognitive behavioral approach therapy (CBT) and mindfulness based cognitive therapy (MBCT).