7. Review, discussion, and possible decision to approve the EXHIBIT A INTERLOCAL CONTRACT FOR USE 1.75 CENTS EXCISE TAX as submitted by Nye County

Tim Dahl, Nye County Public Works Director, discussed the resolution regarding the Interlocal Contract for use of 1.75 cents excise tax. He explained that it had been to Nye County District Attorney and the original agreement signed in 1995 did not have any boundaries. This document now has those boundaries listed. Dahl explained the process of how the funds will be distributed back into County coffers. He stated Nye County will take care of the right-a-ways. Pearl Olmedo overviewed the document to the Board and stated that the Board needs to make sure that this document conveys what the Board wants and expects. Jim Swigart stated that one of the fears of Round Mountain was that the monies would head "south". Dahl stated what money is made here, stays here, he assured the Board. Samantha Faga expressed her concerns about winter road conditions and lack of sidewalks during the winter. She explained that she feels at times that Round Mountain was the forgotten child. Dahl explained that Round Mountain was forgotten because it was not the responsibility of Nye County to take care of the roads. After this resolution goes through, Round Mountain will not be forgotten. Dahl suggested that the Board wait another 30 days so that the Board is comfortable with the document they put forth in front of the Board of Commissioners. The item was tabled.
