

Annual Meeting of the Person Memory Interest Group

October 20-23, 2008

at the Institute of Noetic Sciences
Petaluma, California

Co-organized by David L. Hamilton and Eliot R. Smith

Wednesday, October 22, 2008

Session 1

Chair: Patricia Linville, Duke University

- 8:30 Keith Markman, Ohio University
Opportunities Lost and Found: A Theory of Regret Intensity
- 9:15 Jack Glaser, UC Berkeley Goldman School of Public Policy
Implicit Motivation to Control Prejudice
- 10:00 Break
- 10:30 Angela Maitner, University of Kent
That Guy is Weird, What About You? Impact of Exposure to Surprising Category Combinations on General Person Perception
- 11:15 Natalie Wyer, University of Plymouth
Construal Effects on Event Memory
- 12:30 --Lunch--

Wednesday, October 22, 2008

Session 2

Chair: Yaacov Schul, Hebrew University

- 2:00 Bertram Malle, Brown University
Is There a Hierarchy of Social Influences? The Ease and Speed of Judging Intentionality, Mind, and Morality
- 2:45 Claire Ashton-James, University of British Columbia
The Creative Chameleon: How Mimicry Influences Creative Thinking Styles
- 3:30 Break

4:00 2008 Thomas M. Ostrom Award Address

Chair: David L. Hamilton,
University of California at Santa Barbara

Myron Rothbart, University of Oregon

Shipwrecked on the Coast of Bohemia: Boundaries, Categories, and Labels in Intergroup Perception

7:00 --Dinner--

Thursday, October 23, 2008

Session 3

Chair: Jim Sherman, Indiana University

- 8:30 David Dunning, Cornell University
Vagaries of Self-Evaluation
- 9:15 Jeff Sherman, University of California at Davis
Attentional Processes in Stereotype Formation: A Common Model for Category Accentuation and Illusory Correlation
- 10:00 Break
- 10:30 Michael Inzlicht, University of Toronto
Neural Marks of Religious Conviction
- 11:15 Alison Ledgerwood, University of California at Davis
Group Identity Goals and the Symbolic Value of Property
- 12:30 --Lunch--