

Sheffield

2010

Urban Design Week

Monday 25 October: 6.00pm to 8.00pm

Opening Talk: A Miserable Disappointment No More?

John Punter, Professor of Urban Design at Cardiff University, examines the impact of urban design on the regeneration of Sheffield City Centre and the other seven English 'Core Cities' since the publication of the Urban Task Force report (1999). He will draw on 'Urban Design and the British Urban Renaissance', a major research project he has recently overseen, together with wider experience of design in the US, Canada and France. With contributions from Philip Booth, local academic and author of the Sheffield chapter of the study.

Venue: Sheffield Hallam University City Campus, Owen Building 1028, Arundel Gate.

Event Organiser: Sheffield City Council

Tuesday 26 October: 4.00pm to 6.00pm

Public and Private Open Spaces - Innovative Solutions

A talk on Making Places Profitable: Public and Private Open Spaces - an EU funded project concentrating on transnational solutions for place making and long-term place keeping.

Speakers include: Steve Cooper - City Centre Ambassadors TBC, Hellen Hornby - River Stewardship Company, Mel Burton & Dr. Nicola Dempsey - University of Sheffield, Sara Parratt-Halbert - South Yorkshire Forest Partnership

Venue: University of Sheffield, ICOSS, 219 Portobello Street, Sheffield

Event Organiser: South Yorkshire Forest Partnership and University of Sheffield

Wednesday 27 October: 1.00pm to 2.00pm Lunchtime Talk

Sustainable Neighbourhoods and Urban Waterfronts.

David Rudlin manages URBED (Urbanism Environment and Design) and is also a director of the URBED Trust. He is a planner by training and started his career with Manchester City Council with responsibility for the early stages of the redevelopment of Hulme. He is a founder Academician of the Academy for Urbanism, a Policy Council member of the TCPA, a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts and co-chairs Sheffield Sustainable Development and Design Panel.

Venue: Sheffield Hallam University City Campus, Owen Building 1028, Arundel Gate.

Event Organiser: Sheffield Hallam University

Thursday 28 October: 6.00pm for 6.15pm start

Does Beauty Matter? - Philosopher & author Julian Baggini will be talking about beauty, the subject of new research for the Commission for Architecture and the Built Environment (CABE) conducted by Ipsos MORI in Sheffield.

Booking: required, reserve your place at <http://cabe.wufoo.com/forms/does-beauty-matter>.

Venue: The Circle, 33 Rockingham Lane, Sheffield, S1 4FW

Event Organiser: Sheffield Civic Trust, CABE and RIBA Yorkshire.

Friday 29 October

'Like it or Loathe it' - 6.45pm for a 6.50pm - View the official switch on of the Illumination of the giant electricity substation, landmark on the Inner Ring Road.

Venue: The roundabout subway, Moore Street. Everyone welcome.

'Marmite Buildings' - 7.45pm to 9.00pm - Following the switch on, an evening of lively entertainment and informal debate on Sheffield Architecture past and present.

Venue: Jefferson Sheard Architects Offices, Fulcrum, 2 Sidney Street, Sheffield S1 4RH

Booking: to secure a place please contact katrin.milano@jeffersonsheard.com 0114 252 2903

Event Organiser: National Grid, Jefferson Sheard Architects and Sheffield City Council.

nationalgrid

RIBA
Yorkshire

SENSORIA

Creativesheffield.

The University
Of Sheffield.

