

Horsemanship and Groundwork Clinic with MATT LANGE

Douglas County Trail Riders Arena
816 North 1750 Road Lawrence KS
Saturday August 7 9:00-3:00

*Learn how to be a leader from the end of the lead rope to the saddle

*Tap into your emotional awareness

*Become aware of your breathing patterns

*Create a trusting partnership with your horse

Matt Lange has spent his entire life ranching and working cattle and horses in the Kansas Flint Hills. He has extensive English riding as well as Western riding experience. Matt has trained and rode horses to a 2014 High Point ABRA National Championship in Green Western Pleasure, 2015 NSBA Ranch Pleasure Championship at the ABRA World Show and was 2015 2X Champion Ranch Pleasure at the All Breed Color Congress. Matt will help clinic participants with their groundwork skills as well as their horsemanship skills in the saddle, whether English or Western.

Bring your colts, green horses and your older horses.

There is something here for everyone!

Clinic Fees (includes lunch)

DCTR Member $100 (4H & FFA Participants)

Non Member $110 Audit Fee $20

SPACE IS LIMITED TO 15 PARTICIPANTS

Contact: Joyce Martin 813-505-0577 fourjmartin@hotmail.com to reserve your spot.

Send payment and registration form to DCTR PO Box 3222 Lawrence KS 66049

Registration is not confirmed until payment is received.