DISTRICT COMMISSIONER REPORT

MARCH

What a ripper of a rally we had today at Whittlesea Horse & Pony Club Inc.

The weather conditions were spot on.

We had 5 Groups with 25 Riders booked in for Rally. 5 riders who ended up withdrawing at the last minute, due to unforeseen circumstances.

Margaret McVilly Sanders took Gold group all day. They looked like they had a great day, learning to ride a dressage arena.

We also had Kylie Parker taking some theory and cross country, John Pearce taking Showjumping and pushing everyone and it was great to see Tara riding Jaxson and boy did Tara do an awesome job on him, seeing this was her first ride on him. Lunica did some amazing Vaulting during Showjumping.

We certainly do have some serious talent at our amazing club. Steven Valentine took Grid for the day. And we welcomed Emily Walsh to Whittlesea Horse and Pony Inc teaching Flat, Green group enjoyed her lesson. A successful day had by all I would say. It is great to see new young instructors coming through the ranks.

C Certificate Candidates are sitting their C Certificates on 5th May which is very exciting for them all, wishing them all the very best.

I would like to thank the committee and all of our awesome members for making the past 12 month as WHPC, District Commissioner a great experience. I wish Bel all the very best and I know she will do an amazing job.

I will enjoy just being a Mum and watching all of our wonderful riders enjoying their time at rallies.

Thank you all again for making Whittlesea Horse & Pony Club such a great club to be a member of.

Happy & Safe Riding Everyone!!

Regards, Karen Woolacott / District Commissioner
