

I give deep heart-filled appreciation and gratitude for all to those that I am about to invite!

I ask that this land, this ground upon which we stand become a sacred space.

I invite the Divine to be present.

I invite the Great Spirit, Mother & Father God to be present.

I invite Great Mystery to be present.

I invite our compassionate and loving Ancestors to stand with us and support us and I give special thanks to them, because without them we could not be here.

I invite the Great Teachers and Masters to be present, especially those that we have deep connections to and affiliations with.

I invite the Angels, Archangels, the angelic healing beings of light and, our guardian angels who are devoted to protecting and guiding us as we navigate through this time and space.

I invite the Power Animals, Totems, and our body protectors and I give great thanks to them for loaning their powerful magic, medicine, and for their compassionate relationship with us.

I invite the Healing Spirits from all the realms and give thanks for the healing that I know is going to happen. I invite the sacred Elements: Earth, Water, Fire, Air and Sacred Space. I ask for a balancing of the Elements and give great thanks to our divine personal sacred space: our bodies, our minds, our emotional body, our spiritual body and our energetic body. We thank you for being present and balanced and we treat you as sacred and divine.

I Invite the Mother Earth, the Sun and the Moon, the Stars and the Compassionate Star People. I invite the Directions, the Guardians of the Directions and the Four Great Winds.

I give thanks to the Great Spirits of the Land for supporting us and allowing us to be in harmony and balance with you so we can all prosper here.

And as always, I give thanks in advance for the healings and the blessings that I know will happen here.

Thank you!
