PART V

REGULATION OF ENGAGEMENT IN GAINFUL OCCUPATION

Interpretation and construction of expressions relating to engagement in gainful occupation; power to declare certain occupations to be treated as gainful occupation

57 (1) This section governs the construction of expressions relating to the engagement of persons in gainful occupation.

(2) “engage in gainful occupation” means, for the purposes of this Part—

- (a) to take and continue in any employment; or
- (b) to practise any profession; or
- (c) to carry on any trade; or
- (d) to engage in local business,

where such employment, profession, trade or local business is taken or continued, or is practised, carried on or engaged in, for reward, profit or gain; and cognate expressions shall be construed accordingly.

BERMUDA IMMIGRATION AND PROTECTION ACT 1956

(2A) “work permit” means, for the purposes of this Part, written confirmation of the Minister’s grant of permission to engage in gainful occupation granted to a person under this Part.

(3) “practise any profession” does not include, for the purposes of this Part—

- (a) service as a member of a Government Board or other public authority; or
- (b) service as a member of a commission appointed under the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1935; or
- (c) service as a member of any judicial or quasi-judicial authority, or as a member of any quasi-judicial or arbitration tribunal appointed by the Governor under any Act; or

- (i) the letting of any dwelling-house or part of a dwelling-house for reward, otherwise than as respects the letting of a dwelling-house ordinarily occupied by the lessor during any period when the lessor is temporarily absent from Bermuda;
- (ii) acting as a director of any company, firm or other undertaking (other than a company within the definition of “company” in section 2(1) of the Companies Act 1981) which itself carries on business in Bermuda, (so, however, that the managing director of a company within the definition of “company” in section 2(1) of the Companies Act 1981 which carries on business in Bermuda shall be treated as engaging in local business);
- (iii) engaging in any business in Bermuda as a partner (whether or not an active partner) within the meaning of the Partnership Act 1902;

but does not include—

- (iv) service as a member of a Government Board or other public authority;

- (ix) engaging in any transaction which is solely of the nature of an investment and with respect to which there is (otherwise than as respects the exercise of the powers of a shareholder in a company within the definition of “company” in section 2(1) of the Companies Act 1981) no element of continuing direction.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in subsections (1), (2), (3) or (4) the Minister, by statutory instrument to which section 6 of the Statutory Instruments Act 1977 shall not apply, may declare that engagement in any occupation specified in the regulations shall, for the purposes of this Part, be treated as if it were engagement in gainful occupation; and as from the date of the coming into operation of the regulations this Part shall be deemed to apply and have effect accordingly.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (2) any employment profession, trade or local business shall be deemed to be taken or continued, practised, carried on or engaged in, (as the case may be) for reward, profit or gain if such employment, profession, trade or local business is ordinarily in Bermuda continued, practised carried on or engaged in for reward, profit or gain, notwithstanding that no reward, profit or gain may be obtained or obtainable in the circumstances of the particular case.

[Section 57 subsection (2A) inserted by 2013 : 35 s. 2 effective 1 April 2014]

Saving for powers under Parts IV and VII

58 Nothing in this Part shall derogate from or abridge any power which may be exercised by the Governor or by the Minister under Part IV (which relates to the control of entry and residence in Bermuda), or under Part VII (which relates to deportation).

Special category persons

59 (1) Any person who does not possess Bermudian status but who is for the time being a person falling, as respects his occupation, or future occupation, within any of the categories set out in the First Schedule is referred to in this Act as a special category person, and shall, while he remains a special category person, be entitled, as respects his engagement in gainful occupation in Bermuda, to those exemptions from the requirements as to the grant of permission by the Minister conferred by sections 60 to 68.

(2) Any special category person who is for the time being a person falling, as respects his occupation or future occupation, within any of the categories set out in Part I of the First Schedule is referred to in this Act as a special category person in Government employment.

General principle regarding regulation of engagement in gainful occupation

- 60 (1) Without prejudice to anything in sections 61 to 68, no person—
- (a) other than a person who for the time being possesses Bermudian status; or
 - (b) other than a person who for the time being is a special category person; or
 - (c) other than a person who for the time being has spouse’s employment rights; or

- (cc) other than a permanent resident; or
- (d) other than a person in respect of whom the requirements of subsection (6) are satisfied, shall, while in Bermuda, engage in any gainful occupation without the specific permission (with or without the imposition of conditions or limitations) by or on behalf of the Minister.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1), the entitlement conferred thereby upon a special category person to engage in gainful occupation without the specific permission of the Minister shall be restricted to an entitlement to engage only in such gainful occupation as is directly within the scope and ambit of the particular service, employment or calling by virtue of which he is for the time being a special category person.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (c) of subsection (1), a person shall have spouse's employment rights—

- (a) who is married to, or is the widow or widower of, a person possessing Bermudian status (a "Bermudian spouse"); and
- (b) who is living as husband and wife with that person's Bermudian spouse, or, where that spouse died, so lived up to the time of the death; and
- (c) whose Bermudian spouse is ordinarily resident in Bermuda or, where that spouse died, was so resident up to the time of the death.

(4) In relation to the requirements of ordinary residence and living as husband and wife mentioned in subsection (3)—

- (a) where any question arises whether a person was ordinarily resident in Bermuda, or was living as husband and wife with anyone in Bermuda, that question shall be decided by the Minister;
- (b) where a person has been ordinarily resident in Bermuda, or has been living as husband and wife with someone in Bermuda, and has then been absent from Bermuda for the purpose of that person's education outside Bermuda, the Minister may count that period of absence from Bermuda as a period of ordinary residence in Bermuda or, as the case may be, as a period during which that person was living as husband and wife with someone in Bermuda, if the Minister is satisfied that, but for that period of absence, the person in question would in fact have continued to be ordinarily resident in Bermuda, or, as the case may be, to live as husband and wife with someone in Bermuda.

(5) In subsection (3), the expressions "widow" and "widower", in relation to a deceased spouse, mean the person surviving the deceased spouse regardless whether the survivor remarries.

(6) The requirements referred to in paragraph (d) of subsection (1) are as follows—

- (a) the person must be—
 - (i) a citizen of the United States of America; and

BERMUDA IMMIGRATION AND PROTECTION ACT 1956

- (ii) the spouse of an employee of the Government of the United States of America, being such an employee who—
 - (aa) is in, or arrives in, Bermuda solely for the purpose of discharging his official duties as such an employee; and
 - (bb) is either—
 - A a consular officer or a consular employee within the definitions of those expressions in paragraph 1 of Article 1 of the Vienna Convention as set forth in Schedule 1 to the Consular Relations Act 1971; or
 - B a person to whom the Diplomatic Privileges (Pre clearance Officials) Order 1980 applies;

(b) the person must be living with that person's spouse as husband and wife;

but, if any question arises whether those requirements are satisfied in relation to a person, that question shall be decided by the Minister.

[Section 60 amended by 1994:23 effective 13 July 1994; by 1995:36 effective 14 July 1995; subsection (1)(cc) inserted by 2002:16 s.7 effective 30 October 2002]

Grant etc. of permission to engage in gainful occupation

61 (1) This section shall have effect in connection with the application of any person to the Minister for the grant to that person of any permission under section 60.

(1A) Any such application shall be made on behalf of the applicant by his prospective employer who shall be responsible for ensuring that the application is complete and accurate in accordance with Guidelines issued by the Minister for the purposes of this section.

(2) Any such application shall, if so required by the Minister, be made on the prescribed forms.

(3) Without prejudice to anything in section 33 (which section relates to various powers of the Minister with respect to safeguards regarding permission to land or remain or reside in Bermuda) the Minister shall have the like powers with respect to applicants for the grant of permission to engage in gainful occupation; and section 130 (which section relates to the manner of dealing with deposits of sums of money made with the Chief Immigration Officer) shall apply and have effect accordingly.

(4) The Minister, in considering any application for the grant, extension or variation of permission to engage in gainful occupation, shall, subject to any general directions which the Cabinet may from time to time give in respect of the consideration of such applications, take particularly into account—

- (a) the character of the applicant and, where relevant, of his or her spouse;
- (b) the existing and likely economic situation of Bermuda;

- (c) the availability of the services of persons already resident in Bermuda and local companies;
- (d) the desirability of giving preference to the spouses of persons possessing Bermudian status;
- (e) the protection of local interests; and
- (f) generally, the requirements of the community as a whole, and the Minister shall, in respect of any such application, consult with such public authorities as may, in the circumstances, be appropriate, and shall in particular, in the case of an application for permission to practise any profession in respect of which there is established any statutory body for regulating the matters dealt with by that profession, consult with that body.

- (5) Any permission granted to a person by the Minister under section 60—
 - (a) may be limited in duration to a time specified in the permission; and
 - (b) may be granted subject to such conditions or limitations as the Minister thinks fit to impose and as are specified in the permission, and any person who has been granted permission under section 60 shall not engage in any gainful occupation in such manner that there is a failure to comply with any such condition or limitation.

(6) The Minister may either withhold permission or grant permission subject to any duration, condition or limitation, without assigning any reason for that decision.

(6A) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that a decision of the Minister to withhold permission or grant permission subject to any duration, condition or limitation, is not subject to appeal to the Immigration Appeal Tribunal.

(7) The Minister may extend, revoke, vary or modify the terms of any such permission.

(7A) Any such revocation or restriction of the terms of any such permission shall be effected by means of an order in writing served upon the person to whom it relates.

(7B) Before the Minister makes any order under subsection (7A) against any person, he shall cause a notification in writing to be served upon that person that he proposes to make such an order in his case at the expiration of fourteen days or such longer period as may be specified in the notification; and shall inform that person of the grounds upon which the Minister proposes to make the order and shall invite him within that period to submit in writing to the Minister any reason which he wishes to advance why such an order should not be made in his case.

(7C) The Minister shall not make any order under subsection (7A) until the expiration of the period specified in the respective notification served under subsection (7B) and the Minister shall, where reasons are submitted to him in accordance with subsection (7B), take those reasons into consideration when he decides whether or not the order should be made.

BERMUDA IMMIGRATION AND PROTECTION ACT 1956

(7D) Any person aggrieved by any decision of the Minister to make an order under subsection (7A) against him may, subject to section 124, appeal to the Immigration Appeal Tribunal against such decision.

(7E) Where, in the case of a person who is employed by an employer pursuant to a work permit—

- (a) the employment is terminated by the employer or employee or is regarded by the employer as having ended; and
- (b) the employer informs the Minister of that fact in writing, the work permit shall be deemed to have been revoked immediately upon receipt by the Minister of that writing; and subsections (7A) to (7D) shall not apply in such a case.

(8) The power of the Cabinet under subsection (4) to give general directions to the Minister includes the power to give him a direction that he shall approve, or that he shall reject, applications falling within a particular description specified in the direction; and the Minister shall comply with any such direction notwithstanding anything in subsection (4).

“person charged” means a person in respect of whom it is alleged that there are grounds for making a deportation order, and includes a person in respect of whom a deportation order has been made.

Non-application of Part VII as respects persons possessing Bermudian status or their wives, etc

104 Nothing in this Part shall apply or have effect so as to authorize or empower the Governor to make a deportation order in respect of a person—
