

Daniel D. Atwater
Advisor
Los Angeles, USA Office

Mr. Atwater is a professor and management consultant specializing in overseeing financial communication, business development and strategic advisory for organizations with a combined base of over $300 billion in assets under management. As an advisor with Vnesto Capital, Mr. Atwater is responsible for developing international infrastructure project opportunities along with strategic growth initiatives for the company and its affiliates. A passionate advocate for inclusive economic development, Mr. Atwater has served in association leadership positions with the National Investor Relations Institute, the Regional Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Finance Advisory Board, the USC Black Advisory Council Board, the Chinese Enterprise Council and others. Daniel holds a master's degree in corporate communication management from the University of Southern California (USC) and a bachelor's degree from California State University, Los Angeles where he has also served as an adjunct professor since 2012.