The Very Reverend Dr. Michelle LaMonte-Berry

Married to Linton Pierre and the mother of three children - Deslina, Victoria and Emmanuel, Dr. Berry first traveled to the United States to begin theological studies in Bay, St. Louis, Missouri. She has since studied at the University of Maryland, Columbia University, the University of Stuttgart, the Royal College of England, Pace Theological College and St. Johns College.

Dr. Berry is a stern austere, gracious and endearing leader, whose ability to be fair and honest have kept her at the wheel of a ship which is destined only for "divine success in a sea of troubled water". Dr. Berry is a fighter for the unfortunate, the underprivileged, the down-and-out, lifting them up by the love of God that is within her.

Although she resides in the Flatbush area of Brooklyn, New York, her impact is felt as far away as the Caribbean, Africa and the Far East. She has spearheaded justice for medical services to all people regardless of race, national origin or religion; she has been an advocate for the history making Immigration Bill under President Reagan; and now under President Bill Clinton. She fought to have welfare changed to social services.

One of Dr. Berry's greatest accomplishments came in 1985, when she broke down an eighty-six year barrier by becoming the first female and first black to hold the position of Regional Commander of the National Chaplains Association. However, she resigned due to refusing to give in to her colleagues demands to discriminate against people because of their sexual orientation, race, color, creed or origin.

Dr. Berry made history again in July of 1987, as the first female to become Associate Pastor of an African Baptist Church, even though she was not of that faith. Soon thereafter, she was named First Bishop of New York and the Philippines for the Faith Restoration Center, Inc. As a member of various prestigious organizations, Dr. Berry was also the first black female to be certified as an Advanced Psycho Neurogenic Specialist. She also became a commissioned member of the U.S. Chaplains Association, whose purpose is to upgrade the education of ministers.

Dr. Berry is Presiding Bishop for New York and the Philippines and Commander in Chief for the Caribbean, Africa and Far Eastern Countries Faith Restoration Center, a non-profit religious corporation whose history date back to 1970. In conjunction with her work at the Faith Restoration Center, Dr. Berry has become a member of the Rose of Sharon Spiritual Outreach Association, the International Clergy Association, the Writers/Students and Truthseekers Association, the Worldwide Spiritual Ministers Association and the Religious Science Doctrine Institute.

Dr. Berry's personal vision has always been to bring various religious workers together to teach them to live and work in harmony. She has done this. To date, her accomplishments speak for themselves.

Queen Mother Sheila Jordan

BISHOP QUEEN MOTHER SHEILA JORDAN

"Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it done unto me according to thy word..."

"Fiat voluntas tua" - thy will be done, Matt. 6:10

Bishop Queen Mother Sheila Jordan, was born in the early 1920's, at a time when the world was in the midst of turmoil and changes, occasioned by the politico-socio-economic climate of the time. The family, Leacock, to which she was born, was a prominent Anglican family, who observed and maintained the status quo, thereto.

As a young girl, she grew up during the years the Spiritual Baptist was prohibited by law, from practicing their religion. Bishop Queen Mother Sheila Jordan would naturally be socialized by the propaganda and rejection of the Spiritual Baptists. Consequently, she would have no relationships with anyone who was a Spiritual Baptist.

In 1951, the Spiritual Baptist was free to worship. During this era of change, the life of Bishop Queen Mother Sheila Jordan became as, "The Lord spoke unto Moses saying, "See I have called by name..., And I have filled... With the spirit of God... The table of the congregation, and the ark of the testimony,... And the cloths of service, and the holy garments... to minister in the priests' office,... and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense for the holy place...", Exodus 31:1-11. Thus, Bishop Queen Mother Sheila Jordan was called to the service of God, amongst those whom she despised, and to a faith she abhorred. The waves of change, would toss her to and from, challenged, by her family and friends.

Who can resist the call of God? In the mid-1950's Bishop Queen Mother Sheila Jordan, was baptized. Her life changed, as did family. Her husband Archibald Jordan who once set-up road blocks, later became a pillar of support, and a presiding minister at Mt. Bethel. In much the same way, Jesus commanded the apostles he had chosen, Bishop Queen Mother was commanded to assemble for a nine-Tuesday devotional prayer. This she did, in the living room of the family's home. God, being her Governor of Development, the assembly grew.

Characteristic as one called by Jesus, a multitude would now follow Bishop Queen Mother. This led to the chasing out of Bishop Queen Mother Sheila Jordan from the synagogue (to which she belonged). Rivalry and opposition from the Scribes and Pharisees of the day.

At the back of her home, she built a chapel for worship, a move that angered her husband. Later, this chapel became his home. The assembly rapidly grew and a larger facility was needed. Bishop Queen Mother Sheila Jordan sought to establish a house for God, at Basse Terre (the low earth) in Moruga, then to Marabella (the beautiful sea).

During the years Mt. Bethel was at Marabella, Bishop Queen Mother Sheila Jordan would travel eleven miles to and from her home. Later on, the church would be established at St. Madeleine. From this place, would evolve churches, a school, hospital, and a car park. Beyond the physical and structural development, the most important aspect of the Ministry of Bishop Queen Mother Sheila Jordan included: healing, the laying on of hands, counseling, career guidance, teaching, nursing, exorcism, baptisms, Pointer to journeys on the Rite of Passage. Bishop Queen Mother Jordan is a mother to multitudes, providing for the sick, the naked, homeless and those in despair.

By her dedication to the service of God, as Aaron said, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord". Mother Jordan's husband and children, not only came into the Ministry, but also became Ministers of the Gospels. Her family, are today, models, and a source of strength from which many draw.

The family of Bishop Queen Mother, consists not only of her off-spring but also of approximately sixteen thousand persons who came to Jesus Christ through this blessed ministry. The joy of the Bishop Queen Mother Sheila Jordan is in the righteous and progressive mode of her children.

"To the Purpose Dominus Vobiscum" - (The Lord be with you).
