ALLELUIA!

15th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading- Deuteronomy 30:10-14: "If only you would heed the voice of the Lord your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the Lord your God, with all your heart and all your soul."

Responsorial Psalm- Psalm 69: "Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live."

Second Reading- Colossians 1:15-20: "Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation."

Gospel- Luke 10:25-37: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

The Gospel is from St. Luke 10:25-37 and tells the parable of the good Samaritan.

This parable leaves no doubt about who our neighbor is — anyone (without distinction of race or relationship) who needs our help; nor about how we should love him/her — by taking pity on him/her, being compassionate towards his/her spiritual or corporal needs; and it is not just a matter of having the right feelings towards him/her: we must do something, we must generously serve him/her.

Prayer to St. Benedict

*Admirable Saint and Doctor of humility, you practiced what you taught,
assiduously praying for God's glory
and lovingly fulfilling all work for God and the benefit of all human beings.
You know the many physical dangers
that surround us today, often caused or occasioned by human inventions.*

*Guard us against poisoning of the body
as well as of mind and soul,
and thus be truly a "Blessed one for us."
Amen.*

After founding twelve communities of monks at Subiaco, Italy, Benedict of Norcia (480 AD - 21 March 547) traveled to Montecassino where he established a monastery and wrote "The Rule." This simple set of guidelines for how the life of a monk should be lived has become one of the most influential works in all of Western Christendom.
