Mass Readings for the 13th. Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading – 1 Kings 19:16B, 19-21: “Please, let me kiss my father and mother goodbye, and I will follow you.”

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 16: “You are my inheritance, O Lord.”

Second Reading – Galatians 5:1, 13-18: “For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.”

Gospel – Luke 9:51-62: “No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God.”

One of the most misunderstood concepts regarding the Church’s liturgical year is Ordinary Time. We tend to think of certain seasons of the Church year as special: Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter. These seasons are indeed special. However, Ordinary Time is not referring to a season in which nothing special is happening.

In fact, the Scripture readings teach us that there is nothing ordinary about Ordinary Time. Aware of God’s presence and continuing love, the Church does not let a day go by without counting it as belonging to God. Because we count our Sundays in this way, we call them Ordinary, as in the word ordinal, meaning “numbered.” Because we encounter, day by day and Sunday after Sunday, the deeds of the Lord proclaimed in Scripture, we are reminded regularly that this moment and indeed every moment belongs to God. In fact, at the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday, which is the centerpiece of the Church year, the priest prays these words as he blesses the Easter candle: “Christ yesterday and today, the beginning and the end, Alpha and Omega; all time belongs to him, and all the ages; to him be glory and power through every age for ever.”

Families

We pray for Christian families around the world; may they embody and experience unconditional love and advance in holiness in their daily lives.
