Greetings Harpists,
Have you ever wondered how you could spice up your music? Would you like to learn how a few new chords can add snap to your arrangements? We have the answer! Join Felice Pomeranz on Saturday, November 10 for "Add Pizazz with Pop and Jazz" Day! Felice, jazz harpist and professor of harp at Berklee College of Music, will conduct the following workshops:

Freedom From the Page	Adventures in Arranging
12:30pm	3pm
An introduction to reading lead sheets, chord symbols, and basic improvisation. We will learn a tune together, solo and comp with a live rhythm section. Tips to sound jazzy from day one and exercises to broaden your horizons. Guaranteed smiles all around!	Please bring a tune you are working on that you would like help arranging for harp. Hymn, pop tune, lead sheet, whatever you wish! We will do a brief section of your song to give you ideas about ways to create a fun, different arrangement. Tips for keeping things interesting and building on skills you already have.

What to bring with you:
Harp
Music stand
Bench
Pencil
Tuner and tuning key
Extra strings
A dish to share (for the potluck)

Choose the workshop that best fits your schedule, but for maximum fun, choose both! To sign up, please tear off and fill out the bottom portion of this page and send it to the address provided no later than NOVEMBER 1, 2012.
