Lost and Found

Remember to take your child's belonging with you. We do not have access to the facility after your daily class. Powered by Jessica, Powered Profit and In Good Company is not responsible for lost or stolen articles.

Behaviour Expectations

We expect all participants to be respectful to others at all times. You will be notified immediately of any disciplinary problems with your child that cannot be rectified and/or that threatens the safety of others. Continuous disruptions may result in withdrawal from camp with no refund. Parents and caregivers are also expected to behave in a respectful manner.

Special Activities & Participation

Participants may have opportunities to join in on special activities. Parents and care givers will be informed about any requirements and special permissions may be needed.

Special Assistance

All children may attend and fully participate regardless of ability. If your child requires special assistance to participate in camp activities, you must provide an attendant (at your expense.)

Summer Camp FAQ

1. What should my child wear? Children should wear comfortable clothes that they can play in and do crafts in. Parents may send an old shirt if they are worried about paint or glue. Comfortable shoes and a sweater or sweatpants if the weather looks gloomy. Sunscreen and/or mosquito repellent for outdoor activities. Please send an extra set of cloth in case it is needed.
2. What if I can't pick him/her up? Parents must notify us by telephone if they will be late or if they will be sending someone else to drop off or pick up their child. We are very careful about the children's health and safety. ID will be required.
3. Do you split them up into groups by age? Some of the activities require groups but we try to keep mixed gender and age groups as part of our lessons are about communicating with people who are different.
4. What do they need to bring? Children should bring along lunch, including beverages and snacks. We provide all craft and activity materials, workbooks, pencils etc. (Please do not send any food items with peanuts or peanut butter) We will advise parents before camp if there are any other children with severe allergies or items we need to avoid.

5. Can parents come? We find children interact with each other and with us much differently and sometimes learn more when parents are not present. Parents may telephone their child if necessary or check in on them at lunch (12-1 daily). We invite and encourage all parents to come to the Graduation Party/Ceremony on the last day of camp from 2:00pm-4:30pm.

6. What will the kids be doing? There are a variety of activities, crafts, outdoor games, swimming, semi-formal lessons, practice scenarios, music etc.

7. Who is supervising? Jessica LoRusso will be in attendance as well as a helper or two if there are more than 12 children.

8. What if my child cannot come every day all day? No problem, we would send home any activities or lessons that the child missed as well as their graduation certificate if they miss the last day. *The fees however, are nonrefundable. Parents may choose to skip a day or bring a child late because of appointments etc.

9. What if there is an emergency and my child can't come- do I get my money back. If we are made aware of the situation in writing at least two full weeks in advance, we will refund 80% of the fee. If something happens, i.e. Sickness (medical note required) and the child cannot attend but we are notified before camp begins, we will refund 50% of the fee.

10. Will there be boys and girls? Yes, camp is for both boys and girls and everyone has a lot of fun! Some days the activities are geared towards young ladies (nail painting etc) and so the boys will be given other activities if they wish
