

Fagiano

Maison Fagiano's

...products are made by hand, in an atelier in the heart of Milan.

Each detail and definition meets Haute Couture expectations and follows the classical rules of Italian craftsmanship.

On special request, we can create unique products, to grant the most demanding of desires.

All of Maison Fagiano's leathers are genuine and ethically sourced.

The leathers we use have certifications on traceability and are tanned by the finest Italian factories. Our metals are nickel free and covered in 24 carat gold.

The originality and quality of our products, turns our bags into real jewel pieces.
