

For Such a Time as This

She had no special power or earthly resources to influence a King, but she had more than that...a heart that pleased God. She was a woman of courage and perseverance driven by love for her people and love for God. Because of this, despite all the odds against her, God paved the way for the orphan Jewish girl. She found favor with the King all the way to her throne as Queen Esther. God doesn't call the qualified. He qualifies whom He calls and grants us all we need to fulfill our God-given purpose. We just need to focus on our loving God and our relationship with Him. He will give us what we need to face our battles. Yes, we too can be like Esther, for such a time as this.
