February Message

Share the Love!

February is the month where we talk about love more than almost any other time. Centering around Valentine's Day, which has origins in Roman festivals of fertility and romantic pairing, this holiday has become about cards, candy, flowers and gifts between romantic hopefuls. Those who find themselves unattached at this time of year sometimes feel a sense of loss, having nobody with whom to share it.

I have come to think of Valentine's Day, and thus February, a bit differently and have found healing and perspective in the wake of my life's losses and past solitude.

February can indeed be a celebration of Love. There exists myriad poems and tomes that express the many faces of love. Friendship, romance, marriage, parenthood and more. What I have come to experience is that the core of each type of Love is the same. It is the Love of the One, the Source, the Divine. Those other descriptions are simply the words with which we describe It from within the bounds of different relationships. The Truth of Love is the heart connection that draws us together for a time or a purpose.

People say that Love hurts, but it is not Love that hurts. What hurts is the loss of it, the denial of it, the separation from it, the abuse of it. Grief is the price we pay for Love. I have found it to be worth the price.

The Bible famously tells us: Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud...it is not self-seeking... it keeps no record of wrongs... It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

Let us take that to heart. Let us know the Truth of Love in all of its manifestations. Let us cherish each other as we are all lovable. Let us trust and hope and persevere to create a world that works for each and every one.

Because we are not bound by precedent but by Principle, we are readily able to surrender form to experience and embody Spirit directly. We enter into a mode of deconstruction where the All is ever present and yet the ways in which we experience It are done in new meaningful ways.

Joel Goldsmith says, "Put into practice what you already know..." as a means to having prayers answered. The painter paints, the dancer dances, the chef cooks, but what of the mystic? Mystical living is not intellectually achieved, the Mystic Lives the Mystical experience by letting God be God as them.

Infinite Connections

Eugene Holden, RScP

Every religion and spiritual path is in some way connected to that Single River. Every person is connected to The River and so everyone must also be connected to every wellspring. Our connection to God is our connection to one another! We cannot practice love in isolation or a vacuum.

Reverend Hannah Rothlin

A complete emancipation from every discord of every nature is experienced more readily when emancipation is the consciousness we live from as a result of embodying Spirit. We are the ones we've been waiting for and the journey to freedom is about embodying and living the Truth of Love, Unity, Freedom.

Sacred Covenant

There is only One Life. That Life is God's Life. That Life is Perfect. That Life is my life now.

In knowing that I am one with this Life, I know that I am one with all of Its blessed expressions which include the presence of a new minister for my beloved spiritual community.

Because I know that the Highest Purpose of my new minister is to express God, I therefore know that my new minister reveals Wholeness. I further know that my new minister is the fulfillment of that which we believe, for it is written:

Let us learn to draw the Divine Substance down into our own lives and, as freely as It has been given to us, let us give It to others. Thus alone shall we be made Whole. (Ernest Holmes)

As I stand in agreement with my beloved community, I see my new minister revealed before me as growing the Center in Joy and Prosperity.

I now intend to experience my new minister in full cooperation and agreement with my Community, knowing the Truth about myself, for...

- I live the Presence and Law of God.
- I demonstrate Wisdom through a mature understanding of the Wholeness of Life.
- I am accountable and willing to take full responsibility for my actions.
- I participate in and support the nurturance and guidance of the community.
- I act from Wholeness and congruence in thought, word and action; I “walk the talk”.
- I embrace.... [express your personal Truth here].

I now accept the highest expression of a new minister into my life, knowing that they are revealed in a way that expresses God and serves the highest and greatest good for all who are touched by their presence.

I am grateful!
And so it is. Amen.
