SPORTS LAW

Our Senior Partner is a Sports Law Expert, He serves on the executive of the Trinidad and Tobago Sports Law Association and has over eight years experience in the practice of Sports Law. He also holds an LLM Masters of Laws degree in Sports Law from the Nottingham Law School.

If you are a sports governing body, an athlete, a state agency involved in sports or entertainment or a Government Ministry in Sports then our team of specialist advisors are what you require to take you to the next level.

Sports Law due to its nature overlaps with commercial law, contract law, labour law and entertainment law. We recognize that most if not all athletes are represented by their relevant sporting organisations but do not have individual experienced representation when seeking justice against said organisations.

Our Sports Law services include:

- Commercial Contract drafting, vetting and negotiations
- Brand management
- Representation in disciplinary proceedings
- Civil Litigation
- Advice to Sport Governing Bodies on Good Governance Issues
- Advice to State Agencies on Sport Tourism and Branding
- Venue and Event Management
- Broadcasting Rights and Sport Sponsorship
