Rev. Anne Ribbins Russ is a member of Calvary Hill Missionary Baptist Church where her brother, Rev. John W. Ribbins III is pastor. At her home church, Rev. Russ serves as Minister of Music & Worship and Bible study teacher. Other responsibilities include Sunday School Teacher and ministerial fellowship coordinator.

*Rev. Anne
Ribbins Russ*

Rev. Russ and her brothers, Rev. John Ribbins III and Rev. Mark Ribbins, share a legacy of religious service, both grandfathers, two uncles, and their mother (Gertrude) were ministers of the Gospel. Her parents, Gertrude and John Ribbins Jr. were the founders of Ribbins Book Store, an enterprise which provided Christian literature, music and supplies for local churches until 1999. She served as Chief Operating Officer for the business and specialized in Biblical research as well as being a consultant for religious literature and music. As a Christian Education consultant Rev. Russ developed programs for individual churches, district and state organizations. She has preached, lectured, taught and ministered throughout the state.

After receiving the Master of Divinity degree, she was a professor of Theological studies and Liberal Arts at Temple Bible College and Seminary, Cleveland Extension. She also served as Dean of Student Affairs and later as Assistant Academic Dean. Another facet of her work in education came as an administrator for grades 7-12 at the Second New Hope Christian School.

She is a native of Cleveland, Ohio and was educated in the Cleveland Public School system. Rev. Russ is a mother, and grandmother.

Rita Little is a native of St. Louis, Missouri, but Cleveland has been her home for over thirty years. She is a retired registered nurse and a retired elementary school teacher. Rita was blessed to have had two careers she dearly loved and enjoyed. She obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing from Cleveland State University. She later obtained a Masters Degree in Early Childhood Education from Kent State University. She has taken numerous Moody Bible Courses down through the years.

Rita has been a Christian for many years. Unfortunately many of those years she was a carnal Christian. The Lord was merciful, and He didn't leave her in that rut. He was kind enough to send a precious woman of God to float to her nursing floor and she demonstrated in word and deed what a true woman of God should look like, act like and be like. The Holy Spirit used Earline Ellis to reel her into a true relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ. Since that time, she has been striving to walk worthy of the calling with which she was called.

Rita Little

Rita's calling has been to minister to women and children, two vulnerable groups of human beings. She has been a workshop leader for various women groups and has facilitated a Women's Bible study for more than thirty years. She is currently the President of Women for Jesus, an organization which has hosted a women's conference in the Greater Cleveland area for the past twenty years. She currently teaches in the "Yes I Can" Bible Club Ministry at a Cleveland Public School and a Day Care. She also serves with the Ministry of Reconciliation, an urban outreach ministry serving the greater Cleveland area. She is a member of Good Shepherd Baptist Church where she serves as an Awana teacher to the preschoolers, serves on the Vacation Bible School team, and is a member of the Women's Ministry. Her greatest ambition is to end well. My desire is to live out II Timothy 4:7 "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith."

Elder Asha Williams was called into the ministry in February 2003. She was then licensed to preach the gospel and has faithfully served in the ministry under the leadership of Apostle Lennell D. Caldwell and Pastor Carol Caldwell at First Baptist World Changers International Ministries. In July of 2011, she & her husband (Reggie Williams) were ordained as Elders/Asst. Pastors and serve as leaders of the GateKeepers Youth Ministry at their church. Elder Asha also serves in other ministries; including the Women of Excellence

Ministry, the Praise Team, and she directs the Adult & Children's Choir. She is fully committed to singing, teaching, and preaching the word of God with the conviction that "without holiness, no man shall see the Lord."

Elder Asha is also dedicated to building her home and family, which she believes is her first ministry. As previously mentioned, she is married to Elder Reginald Williams and they have been married for 18 years! After being united with Elder Reggie, they were blessed with two beautiful children, Reginald Williams III (a.k.a. Trey) and Zoe Williams. She truly values spending time with her family.

*Elder Asha
Williams*

Elder Asha definitely faces the contemporary challenge of balancing, home, work and school. She obtained a B.S. in Education at Western Michigan University and a M.A. in Literature & Language Arts from Eastern Michigan University. She has career goals set that will incorporate both her ministry gift as well as her educational background. To God be the glory for the things he has done, and yet will do, in her life!
