*All Age, Novice Horse Classes DO NOT count toward High Point Awards * A Novice Horse is a horse that has not won more than five 1st places in previous years.

Division Eligibility: NOVICE DIVISION: Novice is a beginner and new to showing with LITTLE or NO show experience or skill in showing horses. If you have actively participated in another national equine organization or discipline for three (3) consecutive years, bartered any type of remuneration for training astride, showing, giving lessons, you are NOT considered a novice and therefore ineligible to compete in this division. ARHA Novice Rule applies; See ARHA Handbook for class descriptions except Ranch Riding is identical to AQHA .

High Point Awards: One person can only be champion or reserve champion one time if you cross enter divisions. High Point will go to the next highest overall score. You can show as much as you want but can't be champion in more than one division (you can be champion in one division or reserve in one division) High Point Weekend Winners to be announced after Ranch Cutting of Day 2.
