

The background is a mosaic of irregular, semi-transparent shapes in various shades of teal, light green, and brown, creating a textured, watercolor-like effect. The teal and light green colors are more prominent in the upper half, while the brown and tan colors are more prominent in the lower half.

Le luxe tout simplement

Un peu moins éthique mais définitivement classieuse, la Maison Fagiano s'est, quant à elle, penchée vers une ligne de sacs très haut de gamme. Conçus dans les meilleurs ateliers milanais, ils déclinent avec élégance le python bleu, le cuir d'autruche ou le galuchat.

Ornés de plumes de faisans et de finitions or, ces petits écrins portatifs aux lignes pures sont sortis de l'imagination de Sophie Fagiano Mitchell. Après avoir fait ses premiers pas chez Esmod, cette talentueuse créatrice a intégré l'Istituto Marangano de Milan et l'École St Martins.

Devenue Product Developer chez Burberry, elle s'est passionnée pour le cuir et a décidé de développer sa propre marque. Une designer à suivre de près !

Les sacs milanais de la Maison Fagiano sont d'une élégance rare

MAISON FAGIANO

STILE MEDITERRANEO

Designer francese, artigianato italiano e amore per il Mar Mediterraneo: ecco la formula delle esclusive borse di Maison Fagiano.

Le borse di Maison Fagiano hanno il Mediterraneo nel loro DNA. Disegnate dalla mano di Sophie Fagiano e fatte a mano in Italia in un atelier nel cuore di Milano, spiccano per la loro eccellente qualità e per il design prezioso e ricercato. Queste borse sono state concepite come articoli esclusivi: pelle italiana di altissima qualità, parti metalliche ricoperte in oro 24 k, finiture e dettagli realizzati con perizia. In virtù della lavorazione completamente artigianale, il brand offre la possibilità di realizzare articoli totalmente personalizzati. Parlando di stile, le borse di Maison Fagiano sono per la donna sofisticata che cerca un accessorio di grande carattere, non vistoso ma capace di farsi notare. L'ispirazione della designer viene dalla sua terra natale: l'eleganza della Riviera francese, la natura selvaggia del Mar Mediterraneo. Sophie Fagiano ha studiato a Parigi, Milano e Londra: da queste importanti capitali europee arrivano le influenze che hanno contribuito al suo stile unico.

MEDITERRANEAN STYLE

French designer, Italian craftsmanship and a love for the Mediterranean Sea: here is the formula to make Maison Fagiano's unique bags.

Maison Fagiano's bags have the Mediterranean sea in their DNA. Designed by Sophie Fagiano's hand and handmade in Italy in an atelier in the heart of Milan, they stand out for their excellent quality and the preciousness of the design. These bags are conceived to be truly exclusive pieces: finest quality italian leather, metal parts covered in 24 carat gold, carefully crafted finishes and details. By virtue of the artisan production process, the brand offers the possibility to create fully personalized pieces. Speaking of style, Maison Fagiano's bags are for the sophisticated woman who wants an accessory of great character, not flashy but able to stand out. The designer's inspiration comes from her birthplace: the elegance of the French Riviera, the wild nature of the Mediterranean Sea. Sophie Fagiano studied in Paris, Milan and London: from these important European capitals come the influences that contributed to her unique style. maisonfagiano.com

Met at the last MIPEL, #SophieFagiano told to Arpel how Maison Fagiano was born.

"I worked 7 years at Burberry as Product Developer of bags and shoes, where I developed the deepest love for leather. This led to the idea of creating my own collection of accessories. My inspiration comes from the colours and scents of the Mediterranean and in particular of the French Riviera, where I was born".

Totally handmade by expert artisans, #MaisonFagiano bags are a high haut couture italian product and are aimed at a woman with a natural charm who likes to wear creations with casual elegance.

Objects of desire

THE NEW MAISON FAGIANO BRAND IS AIMED AT A WOMAN WITH A NATURAL CHARM WHO LIKES TO WEAR CREATIONS WITH CASUAL ELEGANCE, BUT WHO ALSO HAS AN UNPREDICTABLE SIDE

How did this fascinating new brand come about? Met at the last Mipel in Milan where she exhibited in the prestigious Scenario area, the young talented designer Sophie Fagiano tells us that she graduated from ESMOD in Paris, obtained a Master's degree from the Marangoni Institute in Milan, and finally studied design at Central Saint Martins School of London, the city where she lives. "I then worked 7 years at Burberry as Product Developer of bags and shoes, where I developed the deepest love for leather. This led to the idea of creating my own collection of accessories. My inspiration comes from the colours and scents of the Mediterranean and in particular of the French Riviera, where I was born".

The lively originality and the high quality of the bags makes them real jewels. The pieces branded Maison Fagiano are handmade in an atelier in the heart of Milan, following the classic rules of Italian craftsmanship. Every detail is meticulously cared for by expert artisans and fully meets the criteria of haute couture.

The leathers used are ethically produced, have traceability certifications and are tanned in the best Italian companies. All metal parts are nickel free and covered in 24 carat gold. It is also possible to request unique customized pieces in order to satisfy any desire for customization.

Oggetti del desiderio

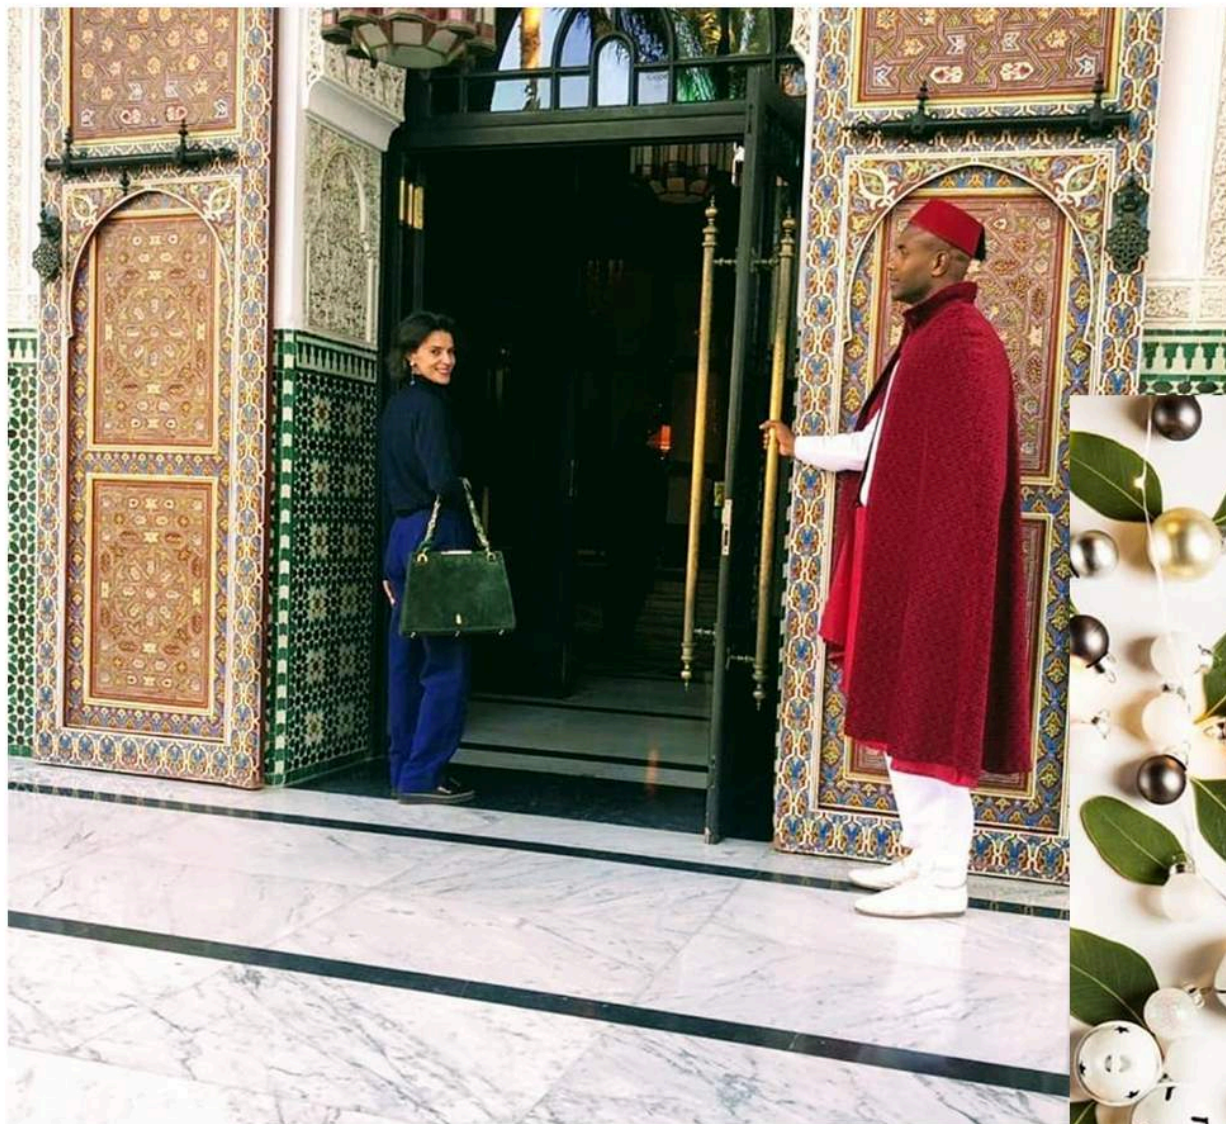

IL NUOVO MARCHIO MAISON FAGIANO SI RIVOLGE A UNA DONNA DAL FASCINO NATURALE A CUI PIACE PIACE INDOSSARE CREAZIONI DALL'ELEGANZA DISINVOLTA, MA CHE POSSIEDE ANCHE UN LATO IMPREVEDIBILE

Come è nato questo nuovo affascinante brand? Incontrata all'ultimo Mipel di Milano dove esponeva nella prestigiosa area Scenario, la giovane talentuosa designer Sophie Fagiano ci racconta che si è laureata all'ESMOD di Parigi, ha conseguito un Master all'Istituto Marangoni di Milano, infine ha studiato design alla Central Saint Martins School di Londra, città dove vive. 'Ho poi lavorato 7 anni da Burberry come Product Developer di borse e calzature, dove ho sviluppato un profondo amore per il pellame. Da questo è scaturita l'idea di creare una mia collezione di accessori. La mia ispirazione viene dai colori e dai profumi del Mediterraneo e in particolare della Riviera francese, dove sono nata'.

La vivace originalità e l'altissima qualità delle borse le rende dei veri e propri gioielli. I pezzi targati Maison Fagiano sono realizzati a mano in un atelier nel cuore di Milano, seguendo le regole classiche dell'artigianato italiano. Ogni dettaglio è curato meticolosamente da esperti artigiani e soddisfa appieno i criteri dell'haute couture.

Le pelli utilizzate sono prodotte eticamente, hanno certificazioni sulla tracciabilità e sono conciate nelle migliori aziende italiane. Tutte le parti metalliche sono prive di nichel e coperte in oro 24 carati. E' possibile inoltre richiedere pezzi unici su misura al fine di soddisfare qualsiasi desiderio di personalizzazione.
