- The theme of the show is “Only Abstraction.”
- The show is open to all art mediums – 2D or 3D. The Show Committee reserves the right to deny entry based on the quality of framing and/or appropriateness for family viewing. No lewd or nude material will be allowed. Religious material will be limited to historical/architectural locations. Original art only – no giclee prints allowed. The show committee will install all exhibits as well as labels to maintain consistency of display.
- No artwork may be removed by the artist prior to the removal date below.
- The designated day for removal is Friday, October 8, 8am-Noon. The committee will take down all artwork and put it where artist can pick it up. It is important that the work is picked up on this date by you or your designated person. The SUAG is not responsible for work not retrieved.
- The Artist Reception will be Friday, September 10, from 6 to 8 PM. Prizes will be awarded.
- Selling: Sales will be made by the SUAG. The guild will receive 25%, Artist 75%. Please note percentage increase. Artist should include the Guild’s 25% in the selling price. Sales tax will be added to the price of the art. When a piece is sold, the artist will be notified and then it can be replaced by the artist, if they choose or by another artist within a two day period. The committee will install the new artwork.
- Liability: Neither the Southern Utah Art Guild nor the city of St. George assumes liability for works exhibited in this show.
