Nothing in life is certain, it is said, except death and taxes. We may not care for taxes, but the certainty of death is a more ominous reality. Our faith speaks to the deepest issues of life and death. It does not deny the reality of death, but affirms the victory we have in Christ over the powers of death.

We have considered individuals who bless us with their life-giving acts, words, or presence. They are also reminders of the potential and possibilities each one of us represents. God calls us to discover the ways we can become agents of life for others.

GOSPEL: Luke 20:27-38

Priest: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke

All: Glory be to You, Lord!

Some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward and put this question to Jesus, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, If someone's brother dies leaving a wife but no child, his brother must take the wife and raise up descendants for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married a woman but died childless. Then the second and the third married her, and likewise all the seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. Now at the resurrection whose wife will that woman be? For all seven had been married to her." Jesus said to them, "The children of this age marry and remarry; but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise. That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called out 'Lord,' the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."

Priest: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise be to You, Lord Jesus Christ.
