Roots and Wings

In the words of Maya Angelou, "The ache for home lives in all of us." Having a place to call home is a basic human need. At its best, home is the place where we feel a sense of rootedness and belonging, while also feeling free to fully express ourselves. It is a familiar place of unconditional love and acceptance. Today we explore the meaning of home and what makes it the place we all long for and need.

A quote by Karl Barth on a textured, watercolor-style background. The word "Joy" is written in a large, white, cursive script. To its right, the words "IS REALLY THE SIMPLEST FORM OF GRATITUDE." are written in a smaller, white, all-caps, sans-serif font, arranged in five lines.

Joy IS REALLY
THE SIMPLEST FORM OF GRATITUDE.
