

The Apostle Paul is Called

Acts Chapter 9

There was a man from the tribe of Benjamin named Shaul. Later he would come to be known by the name Paul. He was a Pharisee. He persecuted the congregation of Yahweh while he entered homes and dragged away men and women. And he delivered them to prison. Some time after the Master Yahshua's death and resurrection, Shaul went to the high priest and asked from him letters to the synagogues in Damascus so if he found any believers of the Way that he could bring them bound to Jerusalem.

As he traveled, he came near to Damascus. Suddenly a light from the heaven shone around him. He fell on the ground and heard a voice saying to him "Shaul, Shaul! Why do you persecute me?" He asked, "Sir, who are you?" The Master said "I am Yahshua, whom you persecute. It is hard for you to kick the stakes." Both trembling and being astonished he said "Master, what do you desire me to do?" The Master said to him "Rise up and go into the city, and it will be told you what you must do." The men who traveled with him stood speechless, hearing a voice but seeing no one.

Shaul was lifted up from the earth, but he could not see anyone even though his eyes were opened. Leading him by the hand, they brought him to Damascus. For three days he was not seeing, and he did not eat or drink.

There was a certain disciple in Damascus named Khanan-Yah. Yahweh spoke to him in a vision and told him to get up and go to the street called Straight and to seek a man from Tarsus, named Shaul, in the house of Judas for behold he was praying. He has seen in a vision a man named Khanan-Yah, coming in and putting a hand on him, so that he may see again. Khanan-Yah answered “Master, I have heard from many about this man, how many bad things he did to Your saints in Jerusalem. Here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all the ones calling on Your name.” The Master Yahweh said to him “Go, for this one is a chosen vessel to Me, to bear My name before nations and kings and the sons of Israel. For I will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of My name.” So Khanan-Yah went and did as Yahweh had commanded him. Immediately something that resembled scales fell off from Shaul's eyes. And rising up he was baptized.

Taking food he was strengthened. Shaul was with the disciples in Damascus some days. Immediately he was in the synagogue of the Yehudeans preaching about Yahshua, that He was the Son of YAHWEH.
