* October 17, 2021 - 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." (Mark 10:45)

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God's love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from "I want more" to "thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share". This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more God-centered.

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time B – October 17th, 2021

* Bishop LeGatt Video Message – Reconciliation: the Archdiocesan Response for the Next Year

This week, Archbishop Albert reflects on some of the efforts the Archdiocese plans to undertake in its reconciliation journey. The following are a few of the proposed initiatives: ☐The formation of an advisory committee composed of Indigenous and non-Indigenous people to guide the continued efforts of truth and reconciliation in our diocese.

☐The various pastoral services are asked to include efforts to promote truth and reconciliation. This could be done through workshops, or through the sharing of resources with the parish coordinators of different ministries. ☐The use of the 4 Seasons of Reconciliation (here for more info: <https://bit.ly/3l5Dgj3>) educational resource as a professional development tool to nurture the minds of our priests and diocesan employees so as to promote a renewal of relationships between Indigenous and non-Indigenous people. ☐The Committee for the Renewal and Growth of Parish Pastoral Councils is still working toward its mission of developing and implementing PPCs in our parishes, but with a new priority of providing PPCs with resources to facilitate conversations around reconciliation. ☐The organization of diocesan discussion groups using the Listening to Indigenous Voices resource from the Jesuit Forum for Social Faith and Justice. ☐Following a year of listening, dialogue, and conversion of hearts within our diocesan Church, we are committed to collecting funds at the local level in support of initiatives that will be discerned locally with Indigenous partners. These efforts are only the beginning. Let us not be afraid to have these deep, and sometimes difficult, conversations with those around us. Let us walk humbly together in practicing just and equitable relationships in our daily lives. Finally, let us ask the Lord to continue guiding us on this journey.

The Good Shepherd Campaign 2021

This week, Archbishop LeGatt is launching the 2021 Good Shepherd Campaign, *United More Than Ever in Christ, with the goal of raising $350,000 in support of the formation of our seminarians and priests, and also the Archdiocese's response to the pandemic in support of its parishes. Over the next few weeks, we will be sharing information and testimonies with you through your parish and on the Archdiocesan website and Facebook page.

We invite you to read the Meet Our Seminarians poster or prayer card, with a photo and a quote from each of our seminarians about their vocation to the priesthood. We also invite you to watch the videos featuring our newly ordained priest, Fr. Christian Mutombo, and deacons, Paul Nguyen and Serge Buisé, in which they share about their discernment toward becoming priests for the Archdiocese of Saint Boniface. Please note that the links to these videos will be active starting October 14.

The special collection will be held on November 6 & 7. However, you can as of now donate online or send your donation by mail. Please be generous in helping the Archdiocese reach its goal!

And most importantly, we invite you to pray for our seminarians as they continue to discern God's will in their lives as they journey toward the priesthood.
