

Trinity C. M. E. Church to Be Redecorated Soon

Trinity C. M. E. church members have completed extensive plans to redecorate the church. The contract has been awarded to W. G. Spaeth, director, and work on the design accepted will begin the second week in February.

The redecoration of the church is part of the program launched by Rev. H. Neal Rhoads pastor. Rev. Mr. Rhoades recently came to the church from the Tennessee conference. He is a graduate of the Lane Theological seminary and a graduate student of Chicago university.
