From the Pastor's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters,

Do you accept your imperfections/weaknesses? I ask this because it is a very hard thing to accept our “poverty in Spirit” let us say. We have been raised in a society that has taught us to be strong, capable, that nothing is impossible for us. We have been taught to think that science and reason can conquer anything; that the important thing is to be positive and strong. However, every day we experience that we do not fulfill our own expectations of who we are and how we should be. It is reasonable to have standards for ourselves but not so high that it has nothing to do with who we are in reality. How many times have we gotten frustrated with ourselves because we have made a mistake. Well, today St. Paul says that we have a “thorn in the flesh” to keep us humble and knowing that we need God. Our patron St. Francis de Sales always spoke that God allowed our weaknesses to keep us holding to Him so that we can find Eternal Life. Imagine, it is our poverty that brings us closer to God – for this we are called to love ourselves and not the idea we have of us.

Also, we are celebrating this weekend Independence Day. I hope you will have a beautiful family and friends gathering and enjoy their company. Independence from tyranny is important and our country has always kept this in its forefront. This year is the first time that I celebrate it fully as an American Citizen and I am happy to do so. Let us rejoice that the Lord has called us to freedom in His Son.

Saint Francis de Sales Pray for Us!

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

¿Aceptas tus imperfecciones / debilidades? Pregunto esto porque es muy difícil aceptar nuestra “pobreza de espíritu”, digamos. Nos hemos criado en una sociedad que nos ha enseñado a ser fuertes, capaces, que nada es imposible para nosotros. Se nos ha enseñado a pensar que la ciencia y la razón pueden conquistar cualquier cosa; que lo importante es ser positivo y fuerte. Sin embargo, todos los días experimentamos que no cumplimos con nuestras propias expectativas de quiénes somos y cómo deberíamos ser. Es razonable tener estándares para nosotros mismos, pero no tan altos que no tenga nada que ver con quiénes somos en realidad. ¿Cuántas veces nos hemos sentido frustrados con nosotros mismos por haber cometido un error? Bueno, hoy San Pablo dice que tenemos un “aguijón en la carne” para mantenernos humildes y saber que necesitamos a Dios. Nuestro patrón San Francisco de Sales siempre habló de que Dios permitió que nuestras debilidades nos mantuvieran aferrándonos a Él para que podamos encontrar la Vida Eterna. Imagínese, es nuestra pobreza lo que nos acerca a Dios, por eso estamos llamados a amarnos a nosotros mismos y no a la idea que tenemos de nosotros.

Además, este fin de semana estamos celebrando el Día de la Independencia. Espero que tengan una hermosa familia y amigos reunidos y disfruten de su compañía. La independencia de la tiranía es importante y nuestro país siempre ha mantenido esto en su vanguardia. Este año es la primera vez que lo celebro plenamente como ciudadano estadounidense y estoy feliz de hacerlo. Regocijémonos de que el Señor nos haya llamado a la libertad en Su Hijo.

¡San Francisco de Sales ¡Ruega por nosotros!

Caros irmãos e irmãs

Você aceita suas imperfeições / fraquezas? Pergunto porque é muito difícil aceitar nossa “pobreza de Espírito”, digamos. Fomos criados em uma sociedade que nos ensinou a ser fortes, capazes, que nada é impossível para nós. Fomos ensinados a pensar que a ciência e a razão podem conquistar tudo; que o importante é ser positivo e forte. No entanto, todos os dias sentimos que não correspondemos às nossas próprias expectativas de quem somos e como deveríamos ser. É razoável ter padrões para nós mesmos, mas não tão elevados a ponto de não ter nada a ver com quem somos na realidade. Quantas vezes ficamos frustrados conosco mesmos porque cometemos um erro. Pois bem, hoje São Paulo diz que temos um “espinho na carne” para nos manter humildes e sabendo que precisamos de Deus. Nosso patrono São Francisco de Sales sempre falou que Deus permitiu que nossas fraquezas nos mantivessem apegados a Ele para que pudéssemos encontrar a Vida Eterna. Imagine, é a nossa pobreza que nos aproxima de Deus - por isso somos chamados a amar a nós mesmos e não a ideia que temos de nós.

Além disso, estamos comemorando este fim de semana o Dia da Independência. Espero que você tenha uma linda família e amigos se reunindo e aproveitando sua companhia. A independência da tirania é importante e nosso país sempre a manteve em sua vanguarda. Este ano é a primeira vez que o celebro plenamente como cidadão americano e estou feliz por fazê-lo. Regozijemo-nos porque o Senhor nos chamou para a liberdade em Seu Filho. São Francisco de Sales ora por nós!

Fr. Francisco
