

Reverend George T. Cromwell

Reverend Cromwell began his ministry at the age of nineteen at Eastern Star Baptist Church, Tarboro, North Carolina. He attended Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina. He holds a Master of Divinity Degree from Shaw (University) School of Divinity in Raleigh, North Carolina. A pastor for twenty-four years, Reverend Cromwell currently serves as pastor at Barnes Chapel Missionary Baptist Church in Goldsboro, North Carolina. He expresses his love for God, the Christian church, and the children of God in effective teaching and preaching of God's word.

He has served as an adjunct professor at Shaw School of Divinity and taught in North Carolina public schools for twenty-eight years. As a special educator, teaching school was a ministry for him from which he retired.

The proud father of one son and two daughters, he has six grandchildren. He lives with his wife, Gail, in Garner, North Carolina where he enjoys reading and swimming.
