Comments	A bit uncomfortable with this. Jane had children still living so how did she end up in the poorhouse? That said, looks right as the correct Thomas Roger had died by this time and the age we found for the correct Jane in the 1891 Census (56) accords with this Jane's age at death Against that is that the parents' Christian names do not accord with other records, but given status of informant, he may not have known details for sure.
