16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. - Mk 6:34

We will again be passing the collection baskets during offertory on weekend Masses. You can put cash or envelopes in the baskets or in the boxes by the holy water fonts again. The lock box will be put away. Please leave the very back pew open for the ushers. Thank you.

Ministers Needed:

We are in need of ministers to help with Masses. As of now we only have a few volunteers helping every weekend. If we have enough volunteers you would only be scheduled to help once a month.

Needed are Readers, Ushers and Rosary Leaders.

Please sign-up in the foyer for the ministry you can help with and which masses.

CCD News

CCD will begin again in September.

We are looking for new catechists as well as substitute catechists and moms or dads interested in helping with recording attendance, delivering letters, etc. during class time. If you are interested in helping in any of these positions this upcoming year, please contact Mary Uttecht.

4 Keys to Remaining Faithful to Jesus Christ and His Church

– Be part of the Virtual Witnesses for Christ Conference on August 7th, featuring Dr. Petroc Willey, who will present at a level that all adults can understand. Dr. Petroc Willey is a gifted teacher as his deep relationship with Christ shines out in a profound way.

We invite catechists and all interested adults on Saturday, August 7th to attend this virtual conference in our church social hall.

Schedule is 9:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided.

Please call Mary Uttecht 715-454-7060 or text 715-573-0430 if you wish to attend.

You are a link in an unbroken chain of people that have passed on Jesus Christ from generation to generation. You have been chosen by God to be a person in this current link, in this current era, at this current moment in time, for a particular reason. You have been chosen to serve, to love and, through the Blessed Trinity, to help guide those the Lord has given you to a deeper friendship with Christ.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Steward's Work Is Never Done

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock! When you hear these strong words from the Old Testament, you're probably thinking, thank goodness I don't have any sheep — dodged that bullet. Nobody misled here! No flock scattered on my watch! However, we are all shepherds of a kind, called to tend our own sheep: our families, our parishes, our communities.

But it's exhausting. Don't we all sometimes just want to take a break from being a steward? The excuses are so familiar: we're tired, we've done enough, we've given all we can, what more does the parish (or my spouse, or my kids, or my boss, or my friends, or my community) want? We give ourselves permission to be selfish. So, what if the flock scatters just a little?

Jesus gets that. We can just imagine him weary with exhaustion, can't we? We see him on his boat, attempting to sneak away for a quick break — maybe just a chance to eat a bite of food in peace. He is God, but he was still human, after all. Even the most dedicated shepherds need to sleep. But people couldn't leave him alone. They were hungry for him. They needed what he could offer, and they needed it now.

As tough as it is, that's the example we are tasked with imitating. Everyday Stewardship demands accountability. It demands our showing up even when we are tired. It demands that we look at our lives, our time, our energies, our talents, our hearts, our bank accounts and think: where do I still have more to give? — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
