Opening Prayer:

When we feel hopeless, restore our hope in who You are. Reaffirm our strength and hope that are found in You and not what we see. Remind us of the purposes that You have for us and the resources to accomplish what You have called us to do. Remind us of your faithfulness and to not lose hope in Your goodness, provision, and sovereignty. Revive our hope in You to inspire, encourage, comfort, and restore all that has been lost and broken. In Jesus' name,
Amen.

Presbyterian Women Purpose:

Forgiven and freed by God in Jesus Christ, and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves: to nurture our faith through prayer and Bible study, to support the mission of the church worldwide, to work for justice and peace, and to build an inclusive, caring community of women that strengthens the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and witnesses to the promise of God's kingdom.

Meet our guest speaker

Rev. Tara Spuhler McCabe:

The Rev. Tara Spuhler McCabe has served in the National Capital Presbytery in Washington, D.C. for the past 20 years. She has served in congregations throughout the presbytery as an Associate Pastor at New York Avenue Presbyterian, Stated Supply at Garden Memorial, and Sabbatical Pastor for several other congregations throughout the presbytery. She has hung her “purse” for the past three years at Faith Presbyterian Church, and now serves as the Transitional Director for Congregational Development and Mission with the Presbytery. She is a graduate of

In preparation for our discussion,
please consider:

1. Of the three R's (Renew, Refresh, Revitalize) which one are you able to connect/engage with simply? How?
2. In looking at your daily or weekly routine, which parts of your routine can connect closer with one of the three R's? How can you stretch closer with the heart of God with that routine?

The offering we will receive at our Spring Gathering will go to the PW Annual Fund (Mission Pledge). The USA Mission Experience, Horizons magazine and Bible study, the Global Exchange, justice work and so much more could not happen without your financial support. Your gift to PW's Annual Fund (the Mission Pledge) ensures that this caring community of women can continue its witness to the promise of God's kingdom.

You may send a check payable to NCP Presbyterian Women (note: Mission Pledge) to our treasurer, June Eakin, 13221 Glenhill Rd, Silver Spring, MD 20904.

To donate by credit card visit:
