New Moon in Pisces, 3.11.13 – Sparkling Truth & the Great Beyond

If you cannot find the truth right where you are, where else do you expect to find it? – Dogen Zenji

Hello friends. Well this month has certainly not fallen short of expectations in terms of magic, intensity and healing potential. The New Moon in Pisces of 3/11 will also be no exception. The energy of this particular New Moon spoke to me quite distinctly; direct yet quite subtle at the same time, with a discernible trace of creative sparkle and magic.

The current Pisces Stellium in some people's case has felt like a bulldozer, which is not the usual way for Pisces energy to manifest. With such a strong constellation occurring at one time however, it has had quite a potent, cleansing effect. Instead of counting our losses however, I feel we are going to meet this New Moon with a sense of renewed gratitude and purpose. The image that was shown to me was a person going on a fast for cleansing purposes. It may not be easy or especially enjoyable as a process; but the end result of feeling lighter, and letting go of physical and emotional toxins would be well worth the effort. I also feel that this is part and parcel for the energies of the upcoming Spring Equinox (3.20) which have already presented as being a powerful Stargate opportunity for further growth, healing and expansion of consciousness.

New Moon Message

Beloveds, you have a powerful opportunity at this time to connect with the multi-dimensional aspects of your being (in past, present and future,) along with aligning with new levels of deep and personal truths. The Key question to consider at this time is, "Does this guidance that I am receiving benefit all beings, not just myself?" All great truths have a universality to them, and bring a spark of recognition. The benefit of collapsing time so to speak, is to catch a clearer glimpse of the eternal Self, the Watcher of the story. – The Keepers, 3.7.13

Sabian Symbol, Pisces 22: A man bringing down the new law from Sinai. This is a symbol of the eternal authority implicit in the very fact of man's ideals, and of a spiritualization of experience through the religious insights of human society and the institutions it has created for the common welfare. The inspired prophets of each age have been custodians of an enduring morality, and this has its embodiment in the mountain-top aspiration of even the least of individuals. Right is dramatized as a personal responsibility for the course of events. The keyword is mandate. When positive, the degree is self sacrifice and a determination to further the ultimate upliftment of all men, and when negative, self-exploitation and impenetrable egotism. – Marc Edmund Jones/Elsie Wheeler

This symbol speaks to receiving revelations from a sense of a higher authority. At its highest potential this is as symbol of the oracle, the prophet who can tap into Universal Guidance and Divine Law for the healing of both self and humanity. The shadow of this potential is the temptation to use this knowledge and ability solely for personal gain and self-aggrandizement. Also, to bend and shape these new truths to better suit what is more comfortable for us, or the "norm." New revelations are often a road less (or perhaps never) traveled, and we must be willing to let go of the past fully in certain areas, if this is what is directed by Spirit in the moment.

I'm breaking through. I'm bending spoons. I'm keeping flowers in full bloom. I'm looking for answers from the Great Beyond. – Michael Stipe

The Great Beyond – REM

The Clan Mother of March's Moon is "Weighs the Truth." Her Color is Brown.

She is the Keeper of Equality and the Guardian of Justice. Fair judge of Divine Law and the Destroyer of Deception. Mother of Truth and Protectress of the Underdog. Mother of Self-determination and Responsibility. She Teaches Us: how to find the ability to respond and how to be self-determined. How to feed the positive, not the negative, by using Divine Law. How to use equality with justice, being accountable for our actions and words. How to use personal integrity, ethics, and values to find healing solutions. How to ACCEPT THE TRUTH. – Jamie Sams

The picture that I have attached to this piece carries these words, "Who you were, who you are, and who you will be are three different people." With this New Moon we have an open window to step out of our usual 3D limitations and more easily enter the world of Spirit and Truth. With so much Pisces energy present, there will also be a unique opportunity to not only receive our own personal truth as healing medicine, but also solutions and guidance for all of humanity on a more universal level. Writers, artists and channels: be sure to have your pens, brushes, instruments and voice recorders ready to go.

There is also a Crow depicted, who's "medicine" is also appropriate as a shamanic symbol and totem animal for this

New Moon.

Crow is the keeper of sacred law. More so than any other medicine, Crow sees that the physical world and even the spiritual world, as humanity interprets them, are an illusion. There are billions of worlds. There are an infinitude of creatures. Great Spirit is within all.

Crow can 'bend' the laws of the physical universe and "shape shift." This ability is rare and unique. Few adepts exist in today's world, and fewer still have mastered Crow's art of shape shifting. This includes doubling, or being in two places at one time 'consciously'; taking on another physical form, and becoming the "fly on the wall" to observe what is happening far away.

Crow is an omen of change. Crow lives in the void and has no sense of time. The Ancient Chiefs tell us that Crow sees simultaneously the three fates—past, present and future. Crow merges light into darkness, seeing both inner and outer reality.

When Crow medicine appears, you must pause and reflect on how you see the laws of the Great Spirit in relation to the laws of humanity. Crow medicine signifies a firsthand knowledge of a higher order of right and wrong than indicated by the laws created in human culture. With Crow medicine, you speak in a powerful voice when addressing issues that for you seem out of harmony, out of balance, out of whack, or unjust. – Medicine Cards™ by ©Jamie Sams and David Carson

The truth is a big truth, very big. It is big like the sky. It is true. Fire burns—true. There is one truth, even on the relative level; it is just reflected in different ways. It is like the story of the ten blind men and the elephant. One blind man says the elephant is like a tree trunk, one says it is like a leaf, and so on, but really it is just one elephant. Likewise, truth is not relative truth, but it is one truth, which includes different discoveries. – Chögyam Trungpa Rinpoche

Happy New Moon and Happy Discoveries.
