

LAUREN DORRIS, MSW/CSW, is a Certified Social Worker. Lauren completed her Bachelor's degree in Psychological Science with a minor in Social Work at Western Kentucky University in 2019. She continued her education and earned her Master's degree in Social Work from Western Kentucky University in 2021. Lauren completed 850 total graduate internship hours at Potter Children's Home and Wilson Counseling. Lauren served as a member in Phi Alpha Honor Society and was nominated for the Outstanding Graduate Student award. Lauren previously volunteered as an Emergency Assistance Coordinator in 2018 where she helped low-income families with rent, clothing, and utility assistance. Lauren has experience helping children in foster care and promoting positive parenting skills for families. Lauren has strong interest in child and adolescent behavior and development. Lauren provides child and adolescent therapy at Wilson Counseling and is working toward LCSW licensure.

Lauren's primary therapeutic approaches include Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy, Behavior Therapy, and Expressive Therapies.