Last Week's Run Report

Hares: Hamersley, Perth Harriettes, South Of Perth Hash

Location; Matilda Bay Crawley

Lies, Untruths and Misdemeanor's OR The Three Loo's Run !

The collective of Hashers that gathered at the venue was fairly impressive. The mighty new Hamersley van was in place, and looked very imposing ! By the time the circle was called, there were quite a number of us - great to see so many different clubs present. Freo was very well represented with more than a dozen members.

The Hares (3 of them ...) indicated there was only 1 trail for runners and walkers, marked in 3 unique ways that corresponded to their 3 clubs ! We were relieved to hear that there were to be 3 NOTE* 3 *drink stops.

We were sent on our merry way, initially on a narrow path along the river, that caused many calls of " Hash Bush" or "Hash Branch" (oh dear ...too late ...) or " Hash Obstacle" This was in the face of a force 10 gale so a bit challenging. We then miraculously found we were on a perfectly good path.... Sneaky Hares !!!

The trail wound its way around that famous seat of knowledge in WA known as the Youniversity. It was interesting to note all the famous landmarks/buildings/gardens. On trail, someone informed the Scribe that there had been many folk who had turned back not very sporting was it ... ? Then, with my own eyes I get to see BJ ON A BIKE on trail! Things you can get away with on joint runs ...!

Eventually we came across the first drink stop, (well I say first, but we had passed another one but didn't stopit was a water fountain !) The refreshment was great, as was to be expected, and then on to the third stop (well it was the third LOO, I think I counted them !) Ingenious ! ... but lies ...all lies.

As with these joint runs, the circles can be daunting, long with in-jokes that you need to be IN on ! So as the circle was called & everyone gathered around, we found ourselves quite enjoying the event The run got a decent score all up, 8 - 9 I think, and after a few charges for minimal miscreants, we were on to jokers etc. Here is where Freo Hash shone as we we had 3 (!) of us regaling the crowd with our wit ! A good effort

Circle over, there was time for another refreshing beverage and some food. The weather had been cool and a bit blustery to start, but calmed down by the evening so quite pleasant.

Happy New Year & Happy Hashing
