From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Folks,

Cold weather has finally commenced! The nights have been down below 30...or 10 and the shiver of the season is upon us. I know that when I am cold my shoulders tense, my body has to work harder to maintain core temperature and the desire to climb between the sheets and snuggle down grows in inverse proportion to the number on my thermometer.

For many people, it is a time to attend to hunker down and turn up the heat. A little bump of the thermometer can take off the chill and bring us comfort.

For people living in extreme poverty, this is not always an option.

In October the United Nations launched a campaign to eliminate extreme poverty by 2030. It is an issue they have been working on for some time now with great results. Now, with more people connected by the internet and more efficient telecommunications, the United Nations believes that together (that includes you and me) we can eradicate this life threatening condition.

The clergy of Wilbraham/Hampden have agreed to bring the global goals for sustainable development to our congregations in 2016. Some of the issues included in the 17 areas of sustainability are concerns we are presently working on: feeding the hungry, clothing those who do not have weather appropriate attire, supporting shelters that can provide a bed to sleep in and a roof for protection to our sisters and brothers in need, to name a few.

I believe that the Christian community can and does play an active role in putting an end to poverty. Together, we can track our successes, overcome our challenges, and let Christ's light of hope and justice burn more brightly in our part of the world.

I hope you will join in these conversations between Christian communities in 2016. Who knows, by working together we may achieve the goal Jesus set before us when he prayed: "My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, 21 that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me. 22 I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one— 23 I in them and you in me—so that they may be brought to complete unity. Then the world will know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me." --John 17: 20-23
Peace, Todd

FROM THE DEACONS' BENCH

John 1:38 "What do you want?"

In the gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke, we see and hear Jesus "up close and personal", throughout his baptism, temptation in the wilderness, preaching, and healing. In John, Jesus is there, but moving silently in the background while John does a "voice-over" narration. One day, the camera begins to move in on two of John's disciples who are following him, and bam! the three come into close focus when Jesus turns and asks them, "What do you want?". And they answer, "...where are you staying?"

What?! Jesus, proclaimed by John as "the Messiah", asks what they want, and all they want to know is where he's staying?? That was my first reaction on reading this passage. But now I see a Jesus who turned around and spoke first - making it easier for them to speak to him. How long would they have followed him, silent, had he not reached out to them?

Now I see their answer, "Where are you staying?" as a desire to just be with Jesus - they didn't know enough about him yet to even ask for more than that.

And Jesus says, "Come and see." - inviting them into a relationship with him, which lasted throughout their lives.

As a new year dawns, we may be wondering (again) what we want out of life, what are our hopes, our dreams - just accepting Jesus' invitation to be with him seems like a good place to start.

In His loving service,
Linda Hornig

Christian Education

We've had a wonderful Children's pageant. Big thanks goes out to Antonio for being the head shepherd in this year's play. All our friends were excited to sing "Go Tell it on the Mountain". They had been practicing for weeks. Thank you to all the parents who helped with practices.

We are going to start the new year with John the Baptist.

Holiday Bazaar

Thank you to everyone who came out to support us at our annual holiday bazaar. We had over 20 vendors take part in our day. We had an amazing time. Thank you for everyone's help with the bake sale, breakfast, lunch and our clean-up crew.

Kristi & Laurie

Super Bowl Subs

The youth group will be collecting grinder orders for Super Bowl Sunday! This is an annual fundraiser that benefits the Youth Group, so that we may go on trips and participate in outreach projects. Please help support our youth and place a grinder order between Jan 24th and 31st. Order forms will be available after worship and online in the near future. Grinders will be available to pick up after church on the Feb 7th.

STEWARDSHIP MUSINGS ...

Our total pledged giving is over $99,000 and pledges are still coming in, so we can all give thanks for the spirit of generous love which is at work in the FCC community, in financial matters, and in the overall mission of the church.

As we cross the threshold of a new year, the members of the Stewardship Ministry would like to share with you this prayer of gratitude from Joyce Rupp:

We are grateful for eyes that can see and ponder, for taste buds that know the sensuous pleasures of eating and drinking, for hands that hold and touch and feel, for ears that can delight in music and the voice of a friend, for a nose that can smell the aroma of newly mown grass or delicious food, and can also breathe the air that gives us life.

We are grateful for the treasure of loved ones ... for being there when we were most in need and for delighting with us in our good days and our joyful seasons.

We are grateful for the messengers of God—people, events, written or spoken words—that came to us at just the right time and helped us to grow.

We are grateful for God calling us to work with our gifts, grateful that we can be of service and use our talents in a responsible and just way.

We are grateful that we have the basic necessities of life, that we have the means and the ability to hear the cries of the poor and to respond with our abundance.

Faithful God, you have lavished us with love... Help us to share your graciousness with all those who need a touch of generous love. Amen.

With Jesus' love,

Linda Hornig, Carol Darnley, Jocelyn Smith

Start the New Year by Losing Emotional Weight

*Do you carry around excess emotional baggage?
Is the weight of your past keeping you from lifting off?
Does it sometimes feel like you are trapped in a box that someone is sitting on?*

Betsy Gray (M.S. LMHC) can help you shed the poundage of the past and move out into a healthier future

January 20 and 27 at the Federated Community Church in Hampden
6:30-8 pm

Betsy will teach you:

- How to identify the bullies that burden you
  - How the bullies get into your system and weigh you down
    - How to send those inner bullies packing
- so that you can shed the pressure of their persecution.

In two sessions you will:

- gain new understanding
- acquire new skills
- create your own “weight loss” plan to set you free!

Betsy Gray has worked with individuals, families, couples and children over the past 20 years. She has practiced in Springfield, Worcester, and in the Psychiatric Crisis department at Baystate Medical. Betsy currently works in private practice in Wilbraham where she counsels people about overcoming issues of addiction. She is a member of the Federated Community Church in Hampden, MA

Suggested Donation of $10/session

(you are welcome to donate more or less as you are able)

Start your new year off by shedding that excess weight and setting yourself free.

Reserve your space by calling Betsy at 413-657-3356 or nicolegrayschildren@hotmail.com

This event is sponsored by The Federated Community Church of Hampden. It is our hope that this program will bring God's peace and healing to those who attend and participate.
