Officer Russell presented the October report noting that the demolition of the McMunn property was scheduled for later in the week. Board members noted that the Guthrie Street fertilizer plant property owner had performed no work and the property is slated for demolition upon funding.

Officer Russell reported that the owner of the property located at North Dixie Street was making minimal progress and the Board expressed their displeasure with the lack of progress and requested that Officer Russell contact Mr. Williams and instruct him that it is necessary that the roof be repaired quickly.

The board discussed property on Chestnut Street owned by Blue Shine and instructed the Code Enforcement Officer to send a letter asking the owner to remove the double wide trailer on the property.

Other new cases were discussed briefly noting several had been abated.

Officer Russell announced his retirement effective November 30, 2018, thanked the Code Enforcement Board for their work and announced that Jimmy Martin and Joy Bennett would be assuming the duties of Code Enforcement Officer.
