

Laura is an experienced human resources and administrative operations professional with a demonstrated history of working in higher education.

In her current position as Human Resources Process Improvement Specialist at Bristol Community College, she assists stakeholders with a wide-range of talent management and recruitment processes, ensuring they are efficient and in-line with applicable policies, contracts, and laws.

After graduating with her Bachelor's degree from Bridgewater State University in 2010, Laura went on to work at Northeastern University's College of Science, focusing on human resources and financial operations. While there, Laura discovered her interest in project management, which led to completing a Graduate Certificate in Human Resources Management and a Master's Degree in Project Management from Northeastern in 2017.

Laura is currently studying for the SHRM-CP exam, where she expects to strengthen her HR knowledge and capabilities further.

Residing in Swansea, MA, with her husband and their cat, Bessie, she loves to travel, garden, and spend time with friends and family.

Laura is a tremendous asset to the SCHRC!
