Timeless Wisdom ... EVOLUTIONARY VISION

STEPPING INTO THE UNKNOWN

The spiritual journey involves going beyond hope and fear, stepping into unknown territory, continually moving forward.
The most important aspect of being on the spiritual path
may be just to keep moving.

Happy
April,

Happy Spring!

This month the CSL Sunday service theme is "Stepping into the Unknown".

First, we look at taking the "Path less Traveled". Perhaps it's time to go out and explore a path Mother Nature has prepared. Next, the "Winds of Change" bring in a new, safer, healthier environment as COVID takes the backseat and we all experience "Bless-itation". The fourth week's lesson tells us to "Step Out and Step Up". What can we do to step out of our comfort zone and step up to help transform lives and make the world a better place?

We can start with supporting our own CSLSG by attending online service and joining the workshops, book study group and sharing our time, treasure and talents with our spiritual community.

As part of my Practitioner training, I practice writing affirmative prayer treatment. Please let my words below be your words if that feels right to you:

As we combine our intentions in prayer, let my words be your words in unity. There is One Power, One Presence, One Active Force surging through all life and all creation. That one powerful force, that I call God, is moving energetically in, around and through me. I use the Force within me to ask the question, "What is mine to do?" Source answers with the still small voice within or with a powerful movement of energy speaking loudly and clearly, always saying, "Love"! I combine with Universal Intelligence and use my head. I gather up the music of a powerful emotion in my heart and I go forth to do the Divine right action that I am shown to do. My smile lifts the one in sorrow. My soft touch calms the fearful. My encouraging words lend clarity to the confused. I am making a difference with the God Force flowing through me. I am so grateful for higher direction and the companionship of unseen Guides leading me on this path of Love. My word is the echo of that which gives me life. I recognize and appreciate that it goes forth and energetically moves me and all connected to me. It is the manifestation of the Mighty One, right here, right now. I release my word and let it go. I let it be.

And So It Is,

The Path Less Travelled

Eugene Holden, RScP

As we say yes to our evolutionary journey, we take the path less travelled, assured that we will be transformed by it. The vision continues to unfold and the path is revealed with each step. Our faith guides us along the way. This is exciting! What is needed for our new journey? What spiritual values and practices are needed to help navigate the path less traveled?

Sunday, April 11th

The Winds of Change

Reverend Elisha Christopher

Commitment to a Vision calls us to embrace change, transformation, and newness. As we boldly step into the unknown, we find ourselves navigating the winds of change, welcoming some and resisting others. We have the opportunity to choose how we are going to live forward.

Sunday, April 18th

Bless-itation

Joe Kovach, RScP

Every new journey we choose to embark on is filled with excitement and anticipation, and there may also be feelings of hesitation. This paradoxical state of blessing and hesitation that could be called a “bless-itation”. As we travel along, we discover the blessings and our hesitations on our new path. Additionally, we have the opportunity to recognize the power of blessing in whatever is before us and/or triggering us, greeting it with curiosity. What gifts are discovered during moments of bless-itation?

Sunday, April 25th

Stepping Out, Stepping Up

Jeffon Seely

“We must be willing to let go of the life we had planned so as to have the life that is waiting for us.” – Joseph Campbell

We gratefully step out of what has been, and confidently step up and into our greatness, excited to blaze a new trail of spiritual awareness. What have we learned thus far and what gifts are we bringing to the new leg of our journey? What will we share with those who travel with us?
