

Men and Women For a Representative Democracy In America

March 12, 2021

The Honorable John Roberts
Chief Justice of the United States
United States Supreme Court Building
1 First St., NE
Washington, D.C. 20543

Chief Justice Roberts:

Stop meddling with the Constitutional right to privacy! Our Organization, Men and Women for a Representative Democracy in America, is outraged at the continued vendetta against President Trump. The Senate acquitted him of the charge of having incited an insurrection. Now, the Supreme Court is declining to step in to halt the turnover of his tax records to a New York state prosecutor.

Trump's tax records are not supposed to become public as part of prosecutor's investigation. Our Organization thinks it most convenient and timely that the Justice Department, under Biden's administration, pursued criminal charges against Trump right after he was acquitted on impeachment charges.

Speculations that Trump benefited while in office amount to pure "hogwash"! You are certainly familiar with Nixon v. Fitzgerald. A former president is entitled to "absolute immunity from liability for civil damages arising from any official action taken while in office". It is noted that this would also encompass legal arguments about criminal negligence.

Drop the "witch hunt" regarding Donald Trump. If personal tax records are such an issue, how about investigating the records of some high -ranking public officials in both executive and legislative branches?

Sincerely,

Member
