A Word From Our President

Dear Guild Members,

Happy holidays to you and yours!

If you're like me, you've had turkey, dressing and lots of family time. Now it's time to get ready for Christmas....decorations, gifts, and cooking. Our lives are so busy and we fill every moment—we may forget those who have not been so blessed. Please take time out of your life to call someone who has lost a loved one this year. The holidays can be so lonely and stressful.

I hope everyone is looking as forward to our Christmas party as I am! The part will be next Monday same time, same place as our regular meetings. Jinnia has planned lots of fun and food for us. Hope that you can come. Remember to bring your bags filled with gifts for the Calhoun County homeless boys and girls. Also, if you plan to join in on Dirty Santa this year, don't forget to bring a $10 gift. If your spouse or a guest is coming to the party and plans to play be sure they bring a gift as well.

Last, please check your email for a list of items everyone has signed up to bring to the potluck.

Wishing each of you and your family a holiday and new year of health and happiness.

Yours truly,

Angie
