Thank you for your interest in the Counselling Practitioner Diploma: Level 4 equivalent course due to begin January 2022.

I have included here some basic information that I hope will help you to understand what this course is all about.

The course is run over 2 years, giving you 450 hours of face to face training (over 18 months) and will provide you with the tools and knowledge that will help you feel prepared to work ethically as a counsellor. The core model of the course is Person-centred as this is a model that is built on the relationship between counsellor and client, but you will also be taught some Cognitive Behavioural and Psychodynamic Theory to help you discover the counsellor you would like to be post qualification.

The modules studied will be – Working Professionally and safely as a counsellor; working within a coherent framework of counselling theory and skills; working within a counselling relationship; working with client diversity in counselling work; working with self-awareness in the counselling process; working self-reflectively as a counsellor; and the placement module Working within a user-centred approach to counselling which includes your placement of 100 supervised placement.

The assessments include:

- Personal reflective journals and small assignments
- Group work, pair work
- Professional discussions
- Client logs and supervisor reports
- Presentations
- Research project

You will have access to course materials through Google Classroom throughout the duration of your course.
