The Mandela Effect

2 Timothy 3:1 "But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come"

Prov 18:13

- He who answers a matter before he hears it,
It is folly and shame to him.

The problem

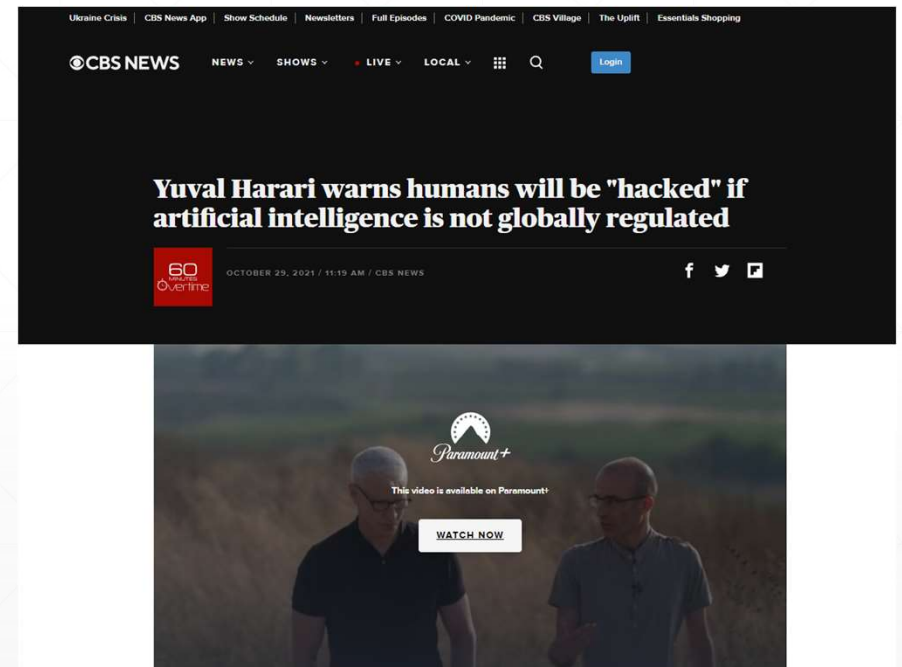

- There is a phenomena taking place right now that is going almost entirely unnoticed by the body of Christ.
 - This event is extremely perilous to the souls of men especially the church.
 - And it was clearly prophesied in the old and new testaments giving us fair warning so we would not be deceived. Its validity does not violate the orthodox teachings of the scripture in any way.
 - We have found that although this phenomena appears to be very obvious to us....it seems somehow to be hidden from most of the people that we try to show it to
 - We believe that there are six primary reasons why people are unable or unwilling to concede that this is happening

Why people are unable or unwilling to conceded that this is happening

- Unwillingness to be persecuted – Pastors do not want to be labeled a conspiracy theorist and this issue may fall into that category for many people...but I can assure you...that it is not.
 - Naturalistic world view and false concepts regarding the nature of reality
 - False concept of the doctrine of the preservation of scripture
 - Fales concept of free will, Satan's powers and permissions in the last days and what God will allow
 - Unwillingness to admit that you have been deceived about almost everything your entire life (Except orthodox Christian teachings of course)
 - Lack of unconditional commitment to the truth which then makes individuals susceptible to highly advance technology or witchcraft that we clearly see being used to influence thought Causing the 2 Thessalonians 2 Strong delusion.

Do you think that mind control weapons are just a conspiracy theory?

- Similarly, the combination of AI and biotechnology means that we are very close to the point when you can hack human beings.
- There's a lot of talk about hacking computers, emails and bank accounts. But we are entering an era of hacking humans. And I'd say the most important fact anybody who is alive today needs to know about the 21 century is that we are becoming hackable animals.

What is the Mandela Effect?

Its not one person vividly remembering one thing that no longer exists. It is;

- 1) Many people vividly remembering many things across many categories
 - 2) However, the things that they are remembering have never existed the way they vividly remember them. Vividly like your name, the color of grass or the color of the sky. These are not things that can just be brushed aside by the idea that we are just misremembering. The reaction that people generally have to this experience is unbridled astonishment. Not a quirky misremembering.

Warning

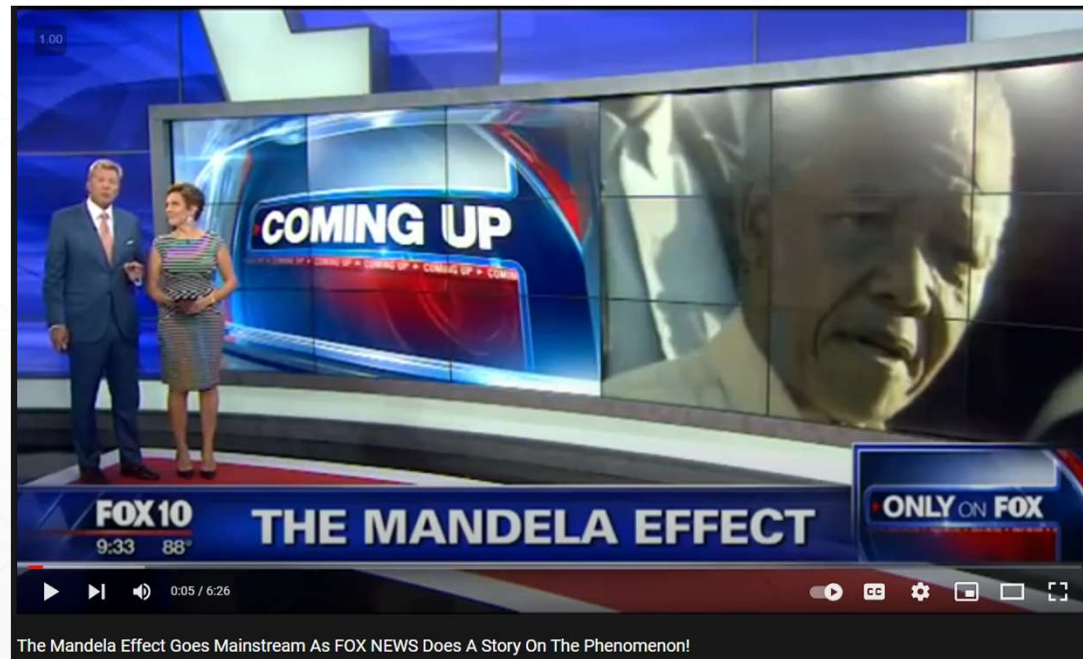

- We believe your susceptibility to these influences are directly proportional to your commitment to the truth no matter where it takes you. No matter what the cost because according to the dictionary.....truth are things that are factual. And facts are things that are obvious.
 - I'm not saying you have to agree with me today....but.....if I show you things that are obvious and you refuse to even consider them, then you are displaying the dictionary definition of delusional.

What is the Mandela Effect?

- Those claiming this experience will say with 100% certainty that;
 - 1) They have never experienced anything like this before
 - 2) That in many cases it is turning their lives upside down, causing divorce, church splits and isolation
 - 3) They have experienced misremembering and this is not that
 - 4) They're high certainty level across so many different examples has placed them in a position where the unconvinced will be forced to produce a different argument than misremembering if they are to be persuaded.

This clearly appears to be a phenomenon

Example # 1 of what its like to experience the Mandela Effect

- What is the name of the street that you grew up on?
 - How certain are you that you are correct?
 - In your mind.....is it possible that you are mistaken?
 - How would you feel if the following three things happened starting tomorrow
 1. You woke up and found out the name of the street had changed and it had always been that way. All sources prove it was always different from what you remember....accept
 2. You were able to find an old year book picture with you in front of the street sign and it was the way that you remember it
 3. Everyone was trying to tell you that you were just misremembering but when you ask them to explain the picture they don't have an answer.
 4. How would that make you feel?

Example # 2 of what its like to experience the Mandela Effect

- You wake up one morning and the 1st letter of your name has changed. All of your documents confirm the change. You also find out that the bank that you thought you had an account with for the last 15 years is different. How could all of those transactions be faked. That is a record of your life...but there it is. Lastly, the first letter of your spouse's name has changed and they swear its always been that way and they are telling you that you are just misremembering.
 - How would you feel and what conclusion would you draw?

What its like (continued)

- Now imagine that this same experience is repeated hundreds of times in multiple categories including;
 - Famous people's names
 - Famous Places
 - Famous Movie quotes
 - The names of movies, TV shows and the names of books
 - Spelling of words
 - Events in history
 - Company logos
 - Geography
 - Human anatomy
 - And yes.....! Even the Bible, the Concordance and the commentaries

- Now imagine that you are able to find these additional proofs to verify that you are not crazy and that something unexplainable is happening
 - There is residual evidence for almost every memory that you have that no one has an explanation for (ie Lion & Lamb residual)
 - There are 100s of thousands and possibly millions of other people also claiming this same experience. One they have never had before
 - Some of the things that you noticed are changed but then they changed back in a short period of time (Flip flop) and its not just on the internet...its also in the real world so its not photoshopped tricks or a government phsyop.
 - You went to the bible and found that this event is clearly foretold in several places
 - In this hypothetical example.....if you were to discover these things that seem to support your belief that something strange is happening What conclusion would you draw?

Understanding the exotic nature of the phenomena (Example)

- You vividly remember the Lion laid down with the lamb
 - You are told that the Mandela effect is real
 - You go to your bible and see that it says wolf and you are surprised
 - You are told that it has been changed supernaturally
 - You say “When did it change? Was it 10 years ago?”
 - Ie From Dead sea scrolls to 2012 it said Lion...then anytime after that it said wolf.
 - We say “no....the change is more all encompassing then that.....even though you have lived and experienced it as lion.....it has never been lion where ever you or your consciousness is now.....it has always said wolf all the way back to the dead sea scrolls.”
 - Conclusion: The change in the bible includes the time line not just the book, your physical history, the existence that you have experienced has either shifted, your consciousness has shifted or history (Spacetime) has been rewritten.

Wormholes, portals, dimensional openings

Psalms 18

- Then the earth shook and trembled;
The foundations of the hills also quaked and were shaken,
Because He was angry.
Smoke went up from His nostrils,
And devouring fire from His mouth;
Coals were kindled by it.
 - 9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down
With darkness under His feet.
10 And He rode upon a cherub, and flew;
He flew upon the wings of the wind.
11 He made darkness His secret place;
His canopy around Him was dark waters
And thick clouds of the skies.
 - From the brightness before Him,
His thick clouds passed with hailstones and coals of fire.

Wormholes, portals, dimensional openings

Gen 28:10

- Now Jacob went out from Beersheba and went toward Haran. 11 So he came to a certain place and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. And he took one of the stones of that place and put it at his head, and he lay down in that place to sleep. 12 Then he dreamed, and behold, a ladder was set up on the earth, and its top reached to heaven; and there the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.
 - 13 And behold, the LORD stood above it and said: “I am the LORD God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and your descendants.
 - Vs 17 And he was afraid and said, “How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven!”

Wormholes, portals, dimensional openings

Rev 17:8

- “The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the abyss and go to destruction. And those who dwell on the earth, whose name has not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, will wonder when they see the beast, that he was and is not and will come.

Biblical examples of time distortion

- Isaiah 38:8 I will cause the sun's shadow to move ten steps backward on the sundial of Ahaz!" So the shadow on the sundial moved backward ten steps.

Biblical examples of time distortion

Joshua 10:12

- On the day the LORD gave the Israelites victory over the Amorites, Joshua prayed to the LORD in front of all the people of Israel. He said,
 - “Let the sun stand still over Gibeon, and the moon over the valley of Aijalon.”
 - So the sun stood still and the moon stayed in place until the nation of Israel had defeated its enemies.
 - Is this event not recorded in The Book of Jasher? The sun stayed in the middle of the sky, and it did not set as on a normal day. There has never been a day like this one before or since, when the LORD answered such a prayer. Surely the LORD fought for Israel that day!
 - Chap 88 in Book of Jasher

Dominion over time, space and matter

- John 6:19 So when they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near the boat; and they were afraid. But He said to them, “It is I; do not be afraid.” Then they willingly received Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

Dominion over time, space and matter

- Acts 8:39 Now when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, so that the eunuch saw him no more; and he went on his way rejoicing. But Philip was found at Azotus.
 - John 2:9 When the master of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom. And he said to him, "Every man at the beginning sets out the good wine, and when the guests have well drunk, then the inferior. You have kept the good wine until now!"
 - Matthew 14:18 And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed and broke and gave the loaves to the disciples; and the disciples gave to the multitudes. So they all ate and were filled, and they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments that remained.

The devils ability to alter material things

- But Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers; so the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments. For every man threw down his rod, and they became serpents.

Devil has control over the elements

Job 1:16 & 18

- Job 1:16 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, “The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants, and [\[n\]](#)consumed them; and I alone have escaped to tell you!”
 - Rev 13:13 He performs great signs, so that he even makes fire come down out of heaven to the earth in the presence of men. And he deceives those who dwell on the earth because of the signs which it was given him to perform
 - Job 1:18 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, “Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house, 19and suddenly a great wind came from [\[o\]](#)across the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people, and they are dead; and I alone have escaped to tell you!”

What is the Mandela Effect?

- Definition of phenomenon. .

a fact or situation that is observed to exist whose cause or explanation is in question. (ie a mystery)

- If you properly understand all the facts of this phenomenon, I believe that you will be forced to concede as we have that there is no reasonable explanation for this.

Main arguments against the Mandela Effect

- Mis-remembering
 - The memory cant be trusted
 - Mind tricks like confabulation / implanted thoughts
 - Crazy, delusional, mental instability
 - Unconvinced remember the same things do but come to a different concusion
 - 2nd Thes strong delusion (Gods Judgment)
 - This is the direct result of willful ignorance
 - False prophets, Heretics, Charlatans, wolves in sheep's clothing
 - This implies premeditation....malice...purposeful deception

Main arguments against Mandela Effect

- Demonic deception
 - This is possible but it's a reductionist explanation....ie how is it happening?
 - Government psyop
 - Photoshopped tricks
 - Biblical illiteracy
 - Translation confusion
 - Original texts vs modernizations
 - Doctrine of immutability of scripture – we agree that God does not change
 - Confusing normal logo changes by companies as the ME

Implanted thought theory

Not just relying on our memories

- Biblical prophecy (Nothing to do with memory)
 - Residual evidence (Nothing to do with memory)
 - Statistical probabilities (Nothing to do with memory)
 - Flip flops (Nothing to do with memory)
 - Notable figures agree (Nothing to do with memory)
 - Vivid memories (Admissible in court)
 - Shared experiences (Your having the same memories)

18 U.S. Code § 3502.
Admissibility in evidence of eye witness testimony

“The testimony of a witness that he saw the accused commit or participate in the commission of the crime for which the accused is being tried shall be admissible in evidence in a criminal prosecution in any trial court ordained and established under article III of the Constitution of the United States.”

According to PMC US National Library of Medicine

“This distinction between the perception and reality of memory has important consequences in the context of the courtroom. In the legal system, like among the general public, it is generally assumed that memory is highly accurate and largely indelible, at least in the case of 'strong' memories.”

The US Library of medicine disagrees with you

Mis-remembering

Definition of remembering

- To remember is to bring to mind an awareness
- It is to recall to the Mind by an act of memory
- Thinking is a process

There are four categories of remembering

1. Can't remember
 2. Trying to remember
 3. Remember
 4. Mis-remember

God wouldn't tell me to do something I couldn't do!

- Deuteronomy 8:18 But you shall remember the Lord your God, for it is He who is giving you power to make wealth, that He may confirm His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day. Source: <https://bible.knowing-jesus.com/topics/Remembering>
 - 1 Chronicles 16:12 Remember His wonderful deeds which He has done, His marvels and the judgments from His mouth, Source: <https://bible.knowing-jesus.com/topics/Remembering>
 - Deuteronomy 9:7-8 Remember, do not forget how you provoked the Lord your God to wrath in the wilderness; from the day that you left the land of Egypt until you arrived at this place, you have been rebellious against the Lord. Even at Horeb you provoked the Lord to wrath, and the Lord was so angry with you that He would have destroyed you. Source: <https://bible.knowing-jesus.com/topics/Remembering>

Don Stewart – <http://www.educatingourworld.com/>

- “Those who argue against the Bible teaching the providential preservation of Scripture make the distinction between the divine inspiration of Scripture and its providential preservation. They claim that there is nothing in the doctrine of the divine inspiration which necessitates that the Scriptures be providentially preserved. They further claim that the scriptures that are used to teach the bible can't be changed have either been misunderstood or misused.”
 - Don Stewart has written over twenty books on the subject of evidences for the Christian faith.

Scriptures used to teach the Bible can't be changed

- Tisaiah 40:8 The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand for ever.
 - Matthew 5:18 For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished.
 - Vs 17 “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them.

God protected his word.... "until"

- But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.
– Daniel 12:4
 - And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end.
– Daniel 12:9

Protection has been lifted (Revelations 22:10)

- And he sayeth unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.
 - Revelations 22:10
 - 1. Strong's # G4972
 - 2. to set a seal upon, mark with a seal, to seal.... for security: from Satan
 - 3. to stamp (with a signet or private mark) for security or preservation

Revelations 22:18-19

- For I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds to these things, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book;

Dan 7:25

- And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

Dan 7:25

- In Dan 7:25 the word law is the word “dath” The KJV translates Strong's H1882 in the following manner: law (11x), decree (3x).
 - In the Hebrew Chaldee Lexicon one of the meanings of the word actually is “The law of God”.

Dan 7:25

- Therefore....Dan 7:25 could be interpreted as follows:
 - And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change the space/time continuum and the bible: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

Amos 8:11

- The days cometh, sayeth the Lord, that I will send a famine in the land. Not a famine of bread nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord.
– Amos 8:11
 - And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.
– Amos 8:12

Details on Amos 8 prophecy

Amos 8:11 confirmed by sign in the sky!

- ▶ VS 11 “Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:
- ▶ VS 12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.”

Enoch described the Mandela Effect (Chap 80)

- And in the days of the sinners the years shall be shortened, And their seed shall be tardy on their lands and fields, And all things on the earth shall alter, And shall not appear in their time: And the rain shall be kept back and the heaven shall withhold it. And in those times the fruits of the earth shall be backward.

Enoch called this one

Banannas grow upside down now.

God will allow it

- And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.
 - Revelations 13:7
 - And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men.
 - Revelations 13:13

“I don’t believe the Devil has that much power!”

- Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, (This was originally lying signs and wonders)
– 2nd Thessalonians 2:9
 - And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish: because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
– 2nd Thessalonians 2:10
 - And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? Rev 13:4

This is the reality of many Conspiracy Theorists

- Hebrews 11:35 Others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. Still others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yes, and of chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn in two, were tempted, were slain with the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented— of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, in dens and caves of the earth.

wildfires.

With experienced firefighters and other able-bodied men deployed in the war, communities had to deal with wildfires as best they could. Protection of forests became a matter of national importance, and a new idea was born. If people could be urged to be more careful, perhaps some of the fires could be prevented. To rally Americans to this cause, and convince them that it would help win the war, the Forest Service organized the Cooperative Forest Fire Prevention (CFFP) program with the help of the War Advertising Council and the Association of State Foresters. Together, they created posters and slogans, including "Forest Fires Aid the Enemy," and "Our Carelessness, Their Secret Weapon."

In a stroke of luck for the cause, in 1942, forests and their animal inhabitants were celebrated in Walt Disney's wildly popular motion picture, "Bambi." Disney allowed the CFFP program to use the film's characters on a 1944 poster. The "Bambi" poster was a success and proved the success of using an animal as a fire prevention symbol. However, Disney had only loaned the characters to the campaign for one year. The CFFP would need to find an animal symbol that would belong to them, and nothing seemed more fitting than the majestic, powerful (and also cute) bear.

On August 9, 1944, the creation of Smokey Bear was authorized by the Forest Service, and the first poster was delivered on October 10 by artist Albert Staehle. The poster depicted a bear pouring a bucket of water on a campfire. Smokey Bear soon became popular, and his image began appearing on more posters and cards. By 1952, Smokey Bear began to attract commercial interest. An Act of Congress passed which removed Smokey from the public domain and placed him under the control of the Secretary of Agriculture. The Act provided for the use of collected royalties and fees for continued wildfire prevention education.

Though he has already accomplished so much, Smokey's work is far from over. Wildfire prevention remains crucial, and he still needs your help. His catchphrase reflects your responsibility: Only you can prevent wildfires. Remember that this phrase is so much more than just a slogan: it's an important way to care for the world around you.

Vaseline (/ˈvæsəliːn/^[*][2]^[note 1]) is an American brand of petroleum jelly-based products owned by transnational company Unilever.^[3] Products include plain petroleum jelly and a selection of skin creams, soaps, lotions, cleansers, and deodorants.

In many languages, the word "Vaseline" is used as generic for petroleum jelly; in Portugal, the Unilever products are called Vaselina, and in Brazil and some Spanish-speaking countries, the Unilever products are called Vasenol.

History [edit]

An image from Vaseline company archives

In 1859, Robert Chesebrough, a chemist who formerly clarified kerosene from the oil of sperm whales, traveled to the oil fields in Titusville, Pennsylvania to research what new materials might be created from this new fuel. There he learned of a residue called rod wax that had to be periodically removed from oil rig pumps. The oil workers had been using the substance to heal cuts and burns. Chesebrough took samples of the rod wax back to Brooklyn, extracted the usable petroleum jelly, and began manufacturing a medicinal product he called Vaseline.^[4]

The first known reference to the name Vaseline was by Chesebrough in his U.S. patent (U.S. Patent 127,568) in 1872. "I, Robert Chesebrough, have invented a new and useful product from petroleum which I have named Vaseline..."

The name "vaseline" is said by the manufacturer to be derived from German Wasser "water" + Greek έλαιον (elaion) "olive oil".^[5]

Vaseline was made by the Chesebrough Manufacturing Company until the company was purchased by Unilever in 1987.

Uses [edit]

Further information: Petroleum jelly § Uses

While Vaseline can be used as a lubricant, it can also be used as a moisture insulator for local skin conditions characterized by tissue dehydration.

The Picture of Dorian Gray

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

"Dorian Gray" redirects here. For the character, see Dorian Gray (character). For other uses, see Dorian Gray (disambiguation) and The Picture of Dorian Gray (disambiguation).

The Picture of Dorian Gray is a philosophical novel by Oscar Wilde. A shorter novella-length version was published in the July 1890 issue of the American periodical Lippincott's Monthly Magazine.^{[1][2]} A revised and extended edition was published in April 1891. Revisions include changes in character dialogue as well as the addition of the preface, more scenes and chapters, and Sibyl Vane's brother, James Vane.^[3]

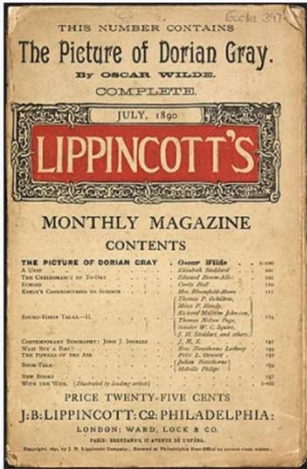

The story revolves around a portrait of Dorian Gray painted by Basil Hallward, a friend of Dorian's and an artist infatuated with Dorian's beauty. Through Basil, Dorian meets Lord Henry Wotton and is soon enthralled by the aristocrat's hedonistic worldview: that beauty and sensual fulfillment are the only things worth pursuing in life. Newly understanding that his beauty will fade, Dorian expresses the desire to sell his soul, to ensure that the picture, rather than he, will age and fade. The wish is granted, and Dorian pursues a libertine life of varied amoral experiences while staying young and beautiful; all the while, his portrait ages and visually records every one of Dorian's sins.^[4]

Wilde's only novel, it was subject to much controversy and criticism in its time but has come to be recognized as a classic of gothic literature.

Revamping Government

It hasn't been in the headlines, but the newly created twelve-man "Hoover Commission" has been granted unprecedented powers to recommend basic changes in the federal government.

The original Hoover Commission was limited simply to a survey of government operations. However, the new Hoover group, now just getting under way, has been given such wide scope it may literally change the whole philosophy of many important federal agencies.

GOP Congressman Clarence Brown of Ohio, legislative father of both the old and new Hoover commissions, sums up the basic difference:

"The job of the first commission was to improve the way the government was doing things. Our new group, however, will look into the question of whether the government should be doing certain things at all. And this time we have the power to recommend legislation."

Folgers or Foldger's

Company history [edit]

"J.A. Folger & Co. were established in 1850 as Wm. H. Bovee & Co"^[4]

The precursor of the Folger Coffee Company was founded in 1850 in San Francisco, California, as the Pioneer Steam Coffee and Spice Mills. The founding owner, William H. Bovee, saw an opportunity to produce roasted and ground coffee ready for brewing.^[5] Before that, Californians had to purchase green coffee beans, and roast and grind them on their own. To help build his mill, Bovee hired James Athearn (J.A.) Folger as a carpenter. Folger had arrived from Nantucket Island at the age of 15 with his two older brothers during the California Gold Rush. In the 1850s, kerosene began to offer a cheaper alternative to whale oil, which had been Nantucket's lifeblood, resulting in the re-purposing of many of its ships to bring coffee from South America to San Francisco.^[6] After working at Bovee's mill for nearly a year, Folger had saved enough money to stake a claim in the company and headed out to mine for gold. He agreed to carry along samples of coffee and spices, taking orders from grocery stores along the way. Upon his return to San Francisco in 1865, Folger became a full partner of the Pioneer Steam Coffee and Spice Mills. In 1872, he bought out the other partners and renamed the company to J.A. Folger & Co.

In 1861, James Folger married. He and his wife had four children, and two of the children worked for the family business. In 1889, Folger died, and his oldest son, James A. Folger II, stepped into the role of president of J.A. Folger & Co at the age of 26.

In the 1900s, the company began to grow dramatically due primarily to a salesman named Frank P. Atha. Atha sold coffee in the California area, but proposed to James Folger II that he open and manage a Folgers Coffee plant in Texas. The company grew exponentially after Atha opened the Texas plant.

Under the mid-20th century leadership of Peter Folger, the brand became one of the principal coffee concerns in North America, the world's largest coffee market. Procter & Gamble acquired Folger's in 1963^[7] and removed the apostrophe from its name.^{[8][a]} During P&G's ownership, Folgers became the number one coffee brand in America.

P&G announced in January 2008 that Folgers would be spun off into a separate Cincinnati-based company^[9] but reversed itself that June and announced Folgers would be acquired by the end of 2008 by The J.M. Smucker Company.^{[10][11]} Utilizing a rare financial technique called a Reverse Morris Trust, Smucker purchased Folgers in November 2008 and made it a subsidiary.

Statue of Liberty

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Coordinates:  40°41′21″N 74°2′40″W

For other uses, see Statue of Liberty \(disambiguation\).

The Statue of Liberty (Liberty Enlightening the World; French: La Liberté éclairant le monde) is a colossal neoclassical sculpture on Liberty Island in New York Harbor in New York City, in the United States. The copper statue, a gift from the people of France to the people of the United States, was designed by French sculptor Frédéric Auguste Bartholdi and its metal framework was built by Gustave Eiffel. The statue was dedicated on October 28, 1886.

The statue is a figure of Libertas, a robed Roman liberty goddess. She holds a torch above her head with her right hand, and in her left hand carries a tabula ansata inscribed JULY IV MDCCLXXVI (July 4, 1776 in Roman numerals), the date of the U.S. Declaration of Independence. A broken shackle and chain lie at her feet as she walks forward, commemorating the recent national abolition of slavery.^[8] After its dedication, the statue became an icon of freedom and of the United States, seen as a symbol of welcome to immigrants arriving by sea.

Bartholdi was inspired by a French law professor and politician, Édouard René de Laboulaye, who is said to have commented in 1865 that any monument raised to U.S. independence would properly be a joint project of the French and U.S. peoples. The Franco-Prussian War delayed progress until 1875, when Laboulaye proposed that the French finance the statue and the U.S. provide the site and build the pedestal. Bartholdi completed the head and the torch-bearing arm before the statue was fully designed, and these pieces were exhibited for publicity at international expositions.

The torch-bearing arm was displayed at the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia in 1876, and in Madison Square Park in Manhattan from 1876 to 1882. Fundraising proved difficult, especially for the Americans, and by 1885 work on the pedestal was threatened by lack of funds. Publisher Joseph Pulitzer, of the New York World, started a drive for donations to finish the project and attracted more than 120,000 contributors, most of whom gave less than a dollar (equivalent to $29 in 2020). The statue was built in France, shipped overseas in crates, and assembled on the completed pedestal on what was then called Bedloe's Island. The statue's completion was marked by New York's first ticker-tape parade and a dedication ceremony presided over by President Grover Cleveland.

The statue was administered by the United States Lighthouse Board until 1901 and then by the Department of War; since 1933 it has been maintained by the National Park Service as part of the Statue of Liberty National Monument, and is a major tourist attraction. Public access to the balcony around the torch has been barred since 1916.

The Home Depot

What Was Home Depot's First Name?

The two initial partners—Bernie Marcus and Arthur Blank, brainstormed on the name to give to their company. Therefore, before opening the first two stores, they considered several options. Interestingly, they settled for “Bad Bernie’s Buildall.” However, Marjorie Buckley, an early investor, disliked the name. So, taking inspiration from a train depot turned into a restaurant, Mrs. Buckley coined the name—The Home Depot. Bernie and Arthur accepted it without regret.

Chuck E. Cheese

For the character, see Chuck E. Cheese \(character\).

Chuck E. Cheese is an American family entertainment center and restaurant pizza chain founded in 1977 by Atari co-founder Nolan Bushnell. Headquartered in Irving, Texas, each location features arcade games, amusement rides, and character stage shows in addition to serving pizza and other food items; former mainstays included ball pits, crawl tubes, and animatronic shows. The chain's name is taken from its main character and mascot, Chuck E. Cheese. The first location opened as Chuck E. Cheese's Pizza Time Theatre in San Jose, California. It was the first family restaurant to integrate food with arcade games and animated entertainment.

After filing for bankruptcy in 1984, the chain was acquired in 1985 by Brock Hotel Corporation, parent company of competitor ShowBiz Pizza Place. The merger formed a new parent company, ShowBiz Pizza Time, Inc., which began unifying the two brands in 1990, renaming every location Chuck E. Cheese's Pizza. It was later shortened to Chuck E. Cheese's in 1994, and Chuck E. Cheese in 2019. Parent company ShowBiz Pizza Time also became CEC Entertainment in 1998.

As of June 2020, CEC Entertainment owned 611 Chuck E. Cheese venues in 47 U.S. states, four Canadian provinces, and Puerto Rico. The COVID-19 pandemic put significant financial strain on the company, and CEC Entertainment filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition under Chapter 11 in the Southern District of Texas on June 25, 2020. The announcement was coordinated with 47 states and 16 countries including the United States, Canada, Mexico, Chile, Saudi Arabia, United Arab Emirates and India.

Chuck E. Cheese's

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Chuck E. Cheese's (formerly Chuck E. Cheese's Pizza Time Theatre and Chuck E. Cheese's Pizza) is a chain of American family entertainment centers and restaurants. The chain is the primary brand of CEC Entertainment, Inc. and is headquartered in Irving, Texas.^[1] The establishment serves pizza and other menu items, complemented by arcade games, amusement rides, and animatronic displays as a focus of entertainment for the entire family.^[3] The brand derives its name from its main animatronic character Chuck E. Cheese, a comedic mouse who sings and interacts with guests.^{[3][8]}

Chuck E. Cheese's Pizza Time Theatre in San Jose, California, was the first location to open in 1977. The concept was authored by Atari co-founder Nolan Bushnell, credited with bringing video games such as Pong to the mainstream. The Pizza Time Theatre was the first family restaurant to integrate food, animated entertainment, and an indoor arcade.^[3] The chain merged with competitor Showbiz Pizza Place in 1984, forming Showbiz Pizza Time, Inc.^[2] In the early 1990s, the company unified the two brands renaming every location to Chuck E. Cheese's Pizza.^[7] They redesigned the logo in 1994, dropping Pizza from each store's name.^[2] In 1998, Showbiz Pizza Time, Inc. became CEC Entertainment, Inc., and the company operates 590 locations as of 2015.^{[2][1]}

Luke's Gay Apocalypse: "Two Women Grinding Together," pt. 1

Posted on May 22, 2011 by Ron Goetz

Luke's same-sex couples appear in Jesus' discussion of a final separation which is often called the rapture. This is a separation of people who are acceptable to God and those who are not. As I said previously, whether or not you believe in this final separation, or whether or not you believe the Bible, doesn't matter with regard to the significance of the passage. What is important is that Luke 17:34-35 teaches that sexually active gays and lesbians are not automatically consigned to perdition.

I tell you, in that night,
there shall be two men in one bed;
the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.
Two women shall be grinding together;
the one shall be taken, and the other left.
(Luke 17:34-35, KJV)

Two Women Grinding Together

The second mention of same sex-couples is "two women grinding together." A literal
