

Ezzard Charles Pollard

Posthumous Induction

Ezzard Charles Pollard graduated from W. A. Pattillo High School in 1970 and was voted “Most Athletic”, as he participated in several sports; most notable, football and as a freshman won the title “Rookie of the Year”. In his junior year, he was elected Co-Captain of the team (an honor reserved for seniors) and Captain his senior year. The team won the NCHSAC 3A State Championship in 1969. Ezzard attended Fayetteville State University where he played linebacker and defensive guard. He attended a tryout camp for linebackers and receivers sponsored by the Miami Dolphins, but it did not pan out for him. He hails that he got his “proverbial shot” and has no regrets. Ezzard married his love Ms. Lorraine Buffaloe, with whom he has three beautiful daughters. Ezzard volunteered his time and skills to Rocky Mount Senior High School as a bus driver for the cheerleading squad, an assistant coach for track and field, and a truck driver for the marching band during his daughters’ high school years. Ezzard served as Vice President of the W. A. Pattillo Alumni Association and was a member of the Logistics team. He encouraged everyone to join the alumni association and to keep this worthwhile organization going.
