

Deficiencies within the Bureau of Prisons

Staffing
Funding
Equipment
Modernization
Leadership
Accountability

Dangerously staffed prisons that have been operating under a "mission critical" bare-bones roster that only allows for the minimum staffing required for the continuity of operations. This makes it dangerous for everyone inside our prisons, and outside in our communities

The role of the Federal Bureau of Prisons in Texas

3 Federal Prisons in DFW
11 Federal Prisons in Texas
Securing 17,252 inmates

Our prisons house:

High level narco drug dealers
International terrorist
Domestic terrorists
Weapons traffickers
Gang members

Minimal Officers to respond to emergencies

Fewer Officers present to deter unlawful behavior

Fewer specialty staff to fulfill programming requirements critical for rehabilitating the incarcerated

BOP's budget does not allow for our prisons to be fully staffed

BOP's pay band is not comparable to other federal law enforcement agencies

BOP's budget is not enough to fully repair our prisons

EQUIPMENT

BOP desperately needs technology to counter illegal cell phones

New legislation requires updating radio systems, cameras, public address systems

Officers have minimal equipment

MODERNIZATION

Many prisons have rudimentary security measures

BOP needs funding to modernize our aging prisons

BOP needs to modernize its outdated policies, and job descriptions

LEADERSHIP

Past leadership has failed the Bureau, often leaving critical positions vacant

Contributed to increasingly dangerous environments by being reactive not proactive

BOP receives minimal training

ACCOUNTABILITY

The BOP has historically been irresponsible with its budget

Executives and Managers have often not been held to the same standard as line staff
