The Far East Area Commission began in the Spring of 2010 with a group of community advocates consisting of neighborhood block watch coordinators and civic association leaders. The group was concerned with the decline of businesses, inadequate city services, rising crime, and rapid residential growth. The Commission was sworn in on March 5th 2012 as the 17th Area Commission in the City of Columbus.

We are volunteers committed to empowering our residents, strengthening our neighborhoods, and protecting our community.
