Bishop Trevor Edwards' weekly note

Dear sisters and brothers,

I want to thank you all very much for the splendid farewells to Ross & Leanne Maltman last Sunday. Both services were very encouraging, with those reading and praying doing so sensitively and really well, and those making speeches of appreciation being so apt in content and tone. While Ross and I had not collaborated at all about what would be the topic of his final sermon, it was complete reinforcement and conclusion to our post-Easter sermon series on living resurrection lives in our speech, emotions and relationships. I trust we will always remember this farewell sermon and keep on putting it into practice by making sure Christ remains central in our lives and relationships. I also hope you will deliberately recall the moving liturgical farewell handover in the Ulladulla service, when both minister and congregation admitted mistakes and offered forgiveness to each other as we committed ourselves to God's care as we parted company. The informal morning tea after the service at Milton was warm and relaxed, while the Farewell lunch at Ulladulla was outstanding and we owe a particular debt of thanks to Judy Hoyer, Helen McFarland and all their willing helpers. On all accounts the whole day was a wonderful unifying occasion as we thanked Ross & Leanne for a decade of Christian service in this parish.

With Ross & Leanne now on leave and officially transitioning to retirement, Bishop Peter Hayward has formally put in place the steps for me to become Acting Rector. My role is essentially to continue to help the parish to transition to its new future and to try to ensure it is as healthy as possible for new ministerial leadership in time. I covet your prayers in this part-time role as we continue to collaborate and work together to this end. For your information, Ruth and I are planning to take a much anticipated brief holiday at the end of this month and so I am thankful to Archdeacon Anthony Douglas who has kindly agreed to assist on the two Sundays I will be absent.

For the next six weeks the sermons at all services will be on selected Psalms. God has given us in the Bible an entire book of models for prayer and praise in a variety of life or community situations. In our tradition for centuries we have been committed to reciting a Psalm or part of a Psalm in Sunday worship, but we have decided it is time to stop and look at a few in detail as we seek to make our feelings an ally of our faith. For your information the topics will be Seeking the Lord (Psalm 27), Praying when Downcast (Psalms 42-43), Facing Guilt (Psalm 51), Dealing with Fear (Psalm 121), Coping with Affliction (Psalm 101) and Counting our Blessings (Psalm 103).

I trust that as we ponder these issues, it will be a stimulus to increased dependence on God in prayer.

Prayerfully yours,

Trevor

Bible Reading

for today's Bible messages

Psalm 27

The Lord is my light and my salvation— whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life— of whom shall I be afraid?

<sup>2</sup> When the wicked advance against me to devour<sup>[a]</sup> me, it is my enemies and my foes who will stumble and fall.

<sup>3</sup> *Though an army besiege me, my heart will not fear;
though war break out against me, even then I will be confident.*

<sup>4</sup> *One thing I ask from the Lord, this only do I seek:
that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to gaze on the beauty of the Lord and to seek him in his temple.*

<sup>5</sup> *For in the day of trouble he will keep me safe in his dwelling;
he will hide me in the shelter of his sacred tent and set me high upon a rock.*

<sup>6</sup> *Then my head will be exalted above the enemies who surround me;
at his sacred tent I will sacrifice with shouts of joy;
I will sing and make music to the Lord.*

<sup>7</sup> Hear my voice when I call, Lord; be merciful to me and answer me.

<sup>8</sup> My heart says of you, "Seek his face!" Your face, Lord, I will seek.

<sup>9</sup> *Do not hide your face from me, do not turn your servant away in anger;
you have been my helper.*

Do not reject me or forsake me, God my Savior.

<sup>10</sup> Though my father and mother forsake me, the Lord will receive me.

<sup>11</sup> *Teach me your way, Lord;
lead me in a straight path because of my oppressors.*

<sup>12</sup> Do not turn me over to the desire of my foes, for false witnesses rise up against me, spouting malicious accusations.

<sup>13</sup> *I remain confident of this:
I will see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.*

be strong and take heart and wait for the Lord.*

A letter from Ross & Leanne

Dear Church Family, we give thanks to our gracious God for bringing us all together for the last ten years, but also for our farewell last Sunday, where His Name was lifted high by all present. What a celebration of our relationship with our heavenly Father.

2021 was Ross' 30th year of full-time Christian ministry, which began in 1992, and included: MTS (ministry training scheme); Moore College; student minister positions while at College; and of course, ordained ministry from 1998. After 10 years of ministry alongside you, we were blown away by your wonderful support and encouragement on Sunday. Something that our three daughters witnessed and were so appreciative of - seeing a church family's genuine love and support for their senior minister and his wife. A partnership that we shared in the gospel, as we ministered alongside each other for God's glory.

For us, it was a time of uniting together as one, as a church family, acknowledging and praising God in word, deed and song. It was a special celebration with His people, our brothers and sisters in Christ, but also friends.

We thank you for your amazing generosity in so many ways, ie. partnership in the gospel, friendship, and notes of encouragement and more. We haven't opened the timber gift box containing all those notes, cards and letters, as we had to finish off gathering things together, ready to depart for our holiday the next morning. But we will certainly read them upon our return home, and treasure your personal thoughts. Likewise, the beautiful painting by Dianne Gee, which will find a prominent place in our new home, in order to be a constant reminder of our relationship with you.

To the Hospitality Team & extra helpers. What do we say? Wow, once again a united effort in making the gathering for lunch so enjoyable. This team is the best we've encountered in 30 years of ministry. That's not taking away anything from other churches we served with, but acknowledging the quality and effort of this team, which was a privilege to experience. It's a special team of gifted Christian ladies.

We are also thankful for the great support we received over the years, from wardens, parish councilors, office staff, ministry leaders and parishioners. Likewise, Dave, who was easy to work with, hard-working and pastorally sensitive in leading the 10.30am service and overseeing children's ministry. Please continue to support all these important ministries and leaders, as well as Bishop Trevor Edwards, in the time ahead.

We are saddened to depart, but understood that our health could no longer handle the stress that is sometimes encountered, amidst the many joys, in leading a parish. Having said that, the good Lord will provide other opportunities for us to share the love of Jesus.

Our prayer is that you continue to sit under the authority of God's Word, putting into practice those virtues of Christ, (Col. 3:12-13) that God enabled the Apostle Paul to challenge the Colossian Church with, and every Christian since.

Our dear Church Family, we love you, we will miss you, and will pray for you to continue growing in Christ, as you immerse yourself in His Word, and put His ways into practice. May He be glorified, and many come to know who He truly is, as you serve Him, every moment of every day!

Only by God's Grace

Your brother & sister in Christ, & friends,

Ross & Leanne (Proverbs 3:5-6)
