

PET FAIR EXTRAVAGANZA

COURTESY PHOTOS

Last Saturday, a pet fair extravaganza to benefit Buddy Dog Humane Society took place at Vetcision's 24-hr. animal hospital, 293 Second Avenue, Waltham. "Even though attendance could have been better, the fair was a success in terms of people enjoying themselves, while coming out to support a cause they believe in," said Dalana Bewley, event coordinator. From left to right, a black Newfoundland attendee, one of the dog demonstrators, and a sheepdog.